

Knowledge Transfer is Main Task for Teachers

The Halton No. 1 Teachers Institute held its annual convention on Friday, Oct. 24 in Kitchener.

In the morning there was a visitation to the Kitchener public schools where the teachers had an opportunity to visit the grade or special subject which most interested them. After an enjoyable morning the teachers then assembled at the Steak House in Kitchener for the afternoon session.

Following a delicious steak dinner, Mr. R. M. Buis, superintendent of public schools, in Kitchener, brought greetings from the inspectors and the Board of Education. Mr. R. G. Buis then introduced the guest speaker, the Very Rev. Finlay D. Stewart, DD, Minister of Knox Presbyterian Church in Kitchener, Ont.

Rev. Stewart spoke on the Marks of Confident Teaching and remarked that every day should be exciting for the teacher in preparing her class for the Spoken Age. He also said for a teacher to attain this she must exchange well-ordered knowledge from herself to her pupils. Sound fundamental skills must be developed and she must have right attitudes and solid beliefs. Mrs. June Evans thanked the speaker.

Inspector of Halton No. 1, Mr. O. G. McDowell gave his appreciation to the inspectors, teachers and Board of Education for their assistance in making the convention a success. Mr. McDowell also thanked Mr. S. Jones, general manager of the Kitchener Chamber of Commerce for planning a bus tour of the city.

The nominating committee then presented the new slate of officers as follows:

President, Mr. J. Watson — Nassagaweya; vice president, Mr. L. MacDonald, Georgetown; secretary, Mrs. M. Armstrong, Georgetown; treasurer, Mr. G. Simpson, Georgetown; Nassagaweya representative, Miss M. Munn, Georgetown representative, Mrs. V. Darcie.

Mr. Jones then outlined the bus tour of Kitchener to be taken.

Mrs. Wriggworth urged the group to remember what a fine privilege it was to be a teacher and reminded them that teaching beyond their present scope could have later useful results.

Mr. Watson, the new president, adjourned the meeting and the teachers went on a bus tour visiting the many places of interest.

STEWARTTOWN

Party is Highlight in Stewarttown Halloween

Mrs. Fred Armstrong, Mrs. George Atkinson and Mrs. Robert McDonald formed the committee who planned and were responsible for the annual Halloween party, sponsored by Esquimaux WI members, and held in the community hall on Wednesday evening, Oct. 31st.

The hall was tastefully decorated for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Clapham had the difficult task of choosing the winners in the Grand March and costume prizes were awarded as follows:

Juniors — Donald Denmore, scareroot, Alan Denmore, a young artist, Steven Deforest, a cat, Laurie Maxwell, Robin Hood.

Seniors — Mrs. Wm. Humphrey, a witch, Elsie Walmsley, Judy Williams, a pair of cats, Mrs. Harvey Clare, a robot, Patricia Woloshyn, a fortune teller.

Roy Donahue was the winner of the Lambie Dance Contest, and Mrs. Audrey McLean carved the best Jack-O'-lantern, in the time allotted. Four ladies entered the contest and the faces were all pretty good. They all looked like "someone" in the audience. A beautiful lunch of sandwiches, cookies and cake with chocolate milk for the children, and coffee for the witches, etc.

Dancing was enjoyed by all. Thanks to Robert Armstrong, who supplied the music with his record player and amplifier.

Early in the evening on Oct. 31st, we in the village had some very strange customs come to our door. "Trick or Treat" they cried as one opened the door to them. Some of them were very tiny, and you had the feeling someone, much older was lurking just around the corner, no doubt concerned for the safety of the young goblin with the ghost, clown, or whatever the costume represented.

NORVAL

Miss Muriel Marr of Cambridge, England, was a recent visitor with her niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Wilson. Miss Marr flew to New York and travelled from there to San Francisco, and Vancouver and from here is visiting home. She expects to make a return visit before going to Florida with her nephew Mr. Norris Marr of Detroit, who also spent the week end at the Wilson home.

Mrs. Edward Hicken is at present in Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital where she has recently undergone an operation. We wish her a speedy recovery.

An old time hymn sing was enjoyed by all who attended St. John's Church Sunday evening. The evening marked the completion of 15 years of ministry in this parish for the Rev. J. E. Maxwell.

Guests were present from Brampton and Georgetown, and after the service all enjoyed a social half hour in the church hall.

HORNBY

The First Hornby Cub, Pack and Scout Troup paraded to the anniversary service at St. Stephen's Anglican Church on Sunday morning, Rev. J. C. Maxwell dedicated the pack and troop flags. The Rev. D. A. Powell, rector of Grace Church, Milton, preached the sermon. The choir directed by Mrs. Bysang an anthem.

The annual Little Helpers party was held on Saturday afternoon at the St. Stephen's Anglican Church Hall. The thirty-eight children paraded in the grand march and prizes were awarded to Brenda Bradley, Judy Saunders, Jack Robertson, Mary Maxwell and Mary Laurson. Diana Royce was the youngest in the parade. Every child received a gift. Games were played and the children gave their mute boxes. The money received from these is for the missionaries. The afternoon was arranged by Mrs. Royce.

Happy birthday wishes on November 7th to Lisa Tallyn on her second birthday, to David Reid on his eighth, to Cheryl Bradley on her thirteenth and to Mrs. Peter Belford.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bradley attended the wedding of their niece at Leamington on Saturday.

The Hornby school children had a holiday last Friday while their teachers attended their classes at Kitchener where the teachers convention was held this year.

Doug Robertson was a patient in the Milton District Hospital where he had a tonsillectomy.

The Hornby children enjoyed the first snowfall of the year on the weekend. By Monday morning, however, the snowmen and snow forts had disappeared.

The Evening Unit of the United Church Women held a successful dance on Friday at the Percy W. Merry School auditorium. Hot dogs and coffee were served in intermission. Merv Tolton of Guelph supplied the music.

STEWARTTOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Wishart are moving to an apartment in Toronto for the winter months. Their neighbours will be looking for their return in the spring.

Mrs. Grace Rodway of Toronto visited with the family.

Ghosts, Goblins at Cub's Halloween

Ghosts and Goblins reigned supreme on Oct. 31st, 1962, at the 3rd Georgetown Cub Pack Halloween party. "Ladies" very simply endowed, cavorted with two of the best dressed tramps in the area! Two large type "babies" enjoyed refreshments all evening from their ever present bottles! Gordon Hill was a lowly girl and Doug Goodlet made a very convincing ghoul. The ladies auxiliary took charge of the meeting and ran the program, with the able assistance of scouts Tom Dalziel and Tom Bradley.

Corporal Ted Scott was invited to present three prizes for costumes. They were a cub money pouch, a book on Lord Baden Powell and a book on Mughli stories. These prizes were awarded to Doug Goodlet the ghoul, Jim McPherson, a baby, and Danny Brown, a Satan with a very businesslike piff-puff! The last 15 minutes of the evening was spent in eating a delicious lunch of chocolate milk cookies, doughnuts and butter tarts, again prepared by the ladies.

The 33 Cubs took home a bag of treats, including a "marshmallow man" who was simply out of this world! (Need it be said fun was had by all!)

SMALL FRY START SATURDAY

THE BIG PURSUIT starts this Saturday when hundreds of the town's junior hockeyists don their pads, and blades, and skate off in all directions. Legion Hockey actually began last Saturday but the games were all exhibition tilts and it's this weekend that the puck hunt starts in earnest. This year because of crowded ice time the starting time has been set back to 6:45 a.m. so turn up early Friday night or else you'll be watching Johnny stick handle through a fog.

Square Dance Calls at Lively Manor Evening

The walls of the auditorium echoed and re-echoed with the sound of lively recorded music, hearty applause and many cries of double and other square dance cries on Tuesday evening, Oct. 16th, when thirty members of the Four Corners Square Dance Club of Port Credit came to the Manor to present an evening of square dancing for the residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Durance, the presidents of the Club, were present and the greater part of the evening was done by Mr. Bert Everett. The music was provided by means of a record player. The chairs of the residents had been arranged in a circle, with the enclosed space reserved for the dancing.

Among the dances presented that had been provided for the residents, from time to time, danced at the Manor until that evening. These included the Blue Pacific Waltz, the Irish Waltz, and two square dances, the Old Hay Stack and the Clap and Turn Polka. Dances that had been presented before included the square dances, the Gay Gordons, and Because, Just Because, and the Hesitation Waltz. While the Hesitation Waltz was being played, Mrs. L.J. Payer a blind resident had the honour of dancing this waltz with the president, Mr. Durance.

Just prior to the dancing of the "Yall of the Lonesome Pine" Mr. Everett made a pleasant little speech in which he dedicated this particular dance to the residents of the Manor, with whom it has always been a special favourite.

During the evening a choicelate bar was presented to every resident by the visitors. At the end of this very lively and enjoyable evening, tea, coffee and cookies were served, giving the visitors and residents a chance to renew old friendships. The hostesses were: Mrs. S. Allen, Mrs. M. Elliott, Mrs. S. Keane, Mrs. H. Maxwell and Mrs. G. Tall.

It was welcome news to hear that the visitors intend to return for another evening of square dancing in the winter months.

Rev. D. A. Powell conducted the church service on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 21st. He read, as Scripture lessons, Psalm 122 and verses 10 of Chapter 1 of First Corinthians.

Mr. Powell based his sermon on verse 4 of the above chapter. He pointed out that Paul had taught among the Corinthians for one and one-half years and that this letter was written to help them in their many troubles.

Paul's words, Mr. Powell said, are fully as relevant to the Christian Church today as they were to the Early Church of Paul's time. Today, as in those days, God is able to take us mortal beings; poor material as we are, and by us prove His love for the world. We may fail in some things but we also succeed in past. Through Christ we find the true direction by which we may be led to God.

The wonderful entertainment plates and decorated with flowers of coloured facial tissues. They were tied under the chin with broad ties. The men's hats were of a comical nature.

When the guests were all seated, the candles on the birthday cake, which was a very attractive addition to the head table, were lighted and the "Happy Birthday" was sung. Each guest of honour received a birthday card and a gift of money.
