

Helen Neutel is Bride in Christian Reformed Church

On Friday evening, November 29th, in the Christian Reformed Church, Georgetown, Helen Neutel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Neutel, Glen Williams, became the bride of Abraham Boerstjas, Hornby, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Boerstjas of Truro, Nova Scotia.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown fashioned on princess lines with overgarments of lace. It had long pointed sleeves and white fur trim. Her finger tip veil was held with a pearl headpiece. She carried a bouquet of red Bacara roses and white stephanotis.

Mrs. Gladys Baert of Ottawa was maid of honour for her sister. Her gown was copper glow Peau de Soie and she wore matching headress and shoes. She carried a bouquet of Flair poms.

Miss Alice Neutel, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, wearing a gown of orange sapphire Peau de Soie with matching headress and shoes. Her bouquet was of bronze Flair poms.

Bronze Poms

The junior bridesmaid was Margaret Neutel, another sister, and her dress was a wheat shade Peau de Soie and she wore a matching headress and shoes and carried a bouquet of bronze Flair poms.

Little Jacqueline Neutel of Burford, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress was white organza. She wore a headband of orange and carried a basket of mixed poms.

Officiating at the wedding ceremony was the Rev. D. C. Derkson of Guelph. Mr. Albert Neutel, brother of the bride, was organist.

The groomsmen was Mr. D. Jol of Guelph and the ushers were Walter and George Neu-

Peter Jones, Georgetown

MARILYN'S LUCK TAKES THE CAKE

MARILYN EMERSON, 84 Sargent Road, likes birthday parties like the one Georgetown Bowl celebrated Sunday. They have the party and she gets the prize, or they have a huge cake with a single candle signifying the bowlers' first anniversary. Marilyn took advantage of the free bowling offer they went home to be shortly after ten o'clock the alley called to say Marilyn had won the grand prize, and she hustled back to accept the cake. It was the Grand Prize.

Hospital Officials At Zone Meeting

A number of hospital personnel of Glen Williams, brothers of the bride.

The reception was held in Stewarttown Hall with the mother of the bride receiving in a light brown wool crepe dress with dark brown accessories. She wore a corsage of coral rosebuds.

Pink Rosebuds

Assisting in the receiving line was the groom's mother wearing a three-piece ensemble in grey knit with black accessories and dark brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

For travelling the bride chose a two-piece navy knit dress with gold accessories.

Following the honeymoon the couple will live on Main Street in Georgetown. The bride is employed by Gamers and the groom by McCarthy Milling, Streetsville.

Guests attended from Truro, Nova Scotia, Guelph, Kitchener, Waterloo, Brampton, Burlington and Ottawa.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honoured with three miscellaneous showers given by Miss C. Weststeyn and Mrs. P. Weststeyn; Mrs. S. Adema and Mrs. A. Verhey, and Miss Anne Bonnance.

Assisting in the receiving line was the groom's mother wearing a three-piece ensemble in grey knit with black accessories and dark brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

For travelling the bride chose a two-piece navy knit dress with gold accessories.

Following the honeymoon the couple will live on Main Street in Georgetown. The bride is employed by Gamers and the groom by McCarthy Milling, Streetsville.

Guests attended from Truro, Nova Scotia, Guelph, Kitchener, Waterloo, Brampton, Burlington and Ottawa.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honoured with three miscellaneous showers given by Miss C. Weststeyn and Mrs. P. Weststeyn; Mrs. S. Adema and Mrs. A. Verhey, and Miss Anne Bonnance.

Assisting in the receiving line was the groom's mother wearing a three-piece ensemble in grey knit with black accessories and dark brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

For travelling the bride chose a two-piece navy knit dress with gold accessories.

Following the honeymoon the couple will live on Main Street in Georgetown. The bride is employed by Gamers and the groom by McCarthy Milling, Streetsville.

Guests attended from Truro, Nova Scotia, Guelph, Kitchener, Waterloo, Brampton, Burlington and Ottawa.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honoured with three miscellaneous showers given by Miss C. Weststeyn and Mrs. P. Weststeyn; Mrs. S. Adema and Mrs. A. Verhey, and Miss Anne Bonnance.

Assisting in the receiving line was the groom's mother wearing a three-piece ensemble in grey knit with black accessories and dark brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

For travelling the bride chose a two-piece navy knit dress with gold accessories.

Following the honeymoon the couple will live on Main Street in Georgetown. The bride is employed by Gamers and the groom by McCarthy Milling, Streetsville.

Guests attended from Truro, Nova Scotia, Guelph, Kitchener, Waterloo, Brampton, Burlington and Ottawa.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honoured with three miscellaneous showers given by Miss C. Weststeyn and Mrs. P. Weststeyn; Mrs. S. Adema and Mrs. A. Verhey, and Miss Anne Bonnance.

Assisting in the receiving line was the groom's mother wearing a three-piece ensemble in grey knit with black accessories and dark brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

For travelling the bride chose a two-piece navy knit dress with gold accessories.

Following the honeymoon the couple will live on Main Street in Georgetown. The bride is employed by Gamers and the groom by McCarthy Milling, Streetsville.

Guests attended from Truro, Nova Scotia, Guelph, Kitchener, Waterloo, Brampton, Burlington and Ottawa.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honoured with three miscellaneous showers given by Miss C. Weststeyn and Mrs. P. Weststeyn; Mrs. S. Adema and Mrs. A. Verhey, and Miss Anne Bonnance.

Assisting in the receiving line was the groom's mother wearing a three-piece ensemble in grey knit with black accessories and dark brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

For travelling the bride chose a two-piece navy knit dress with gold accessories.

Following the honeymoon the couple will live on Main Street in Georgetown. The bride is employed by Gamers and the groom by McCarthy Milling, Streetsville.

Guests attended from Truro, Nova Scotia, Guelph, Kitchener, Waterloo, Brampton, Burlington and Ottawa.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honoured with three miscellaneous showers given by Miss C. Weststeyn and Mrs. P. Weststeyn; Mrs. S. Adema and Mrs. A. Verhey, and Miss Anne Bonnance.

Assisting in the receiving line was the groom's mother wearing a three-piece ensemble in grey knit with black accessories and dark brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

For travelling the bride chose a two-piece navy knit dress with gold accessories.

Following the honeymoon the couple will live on Main Street in Georgetown. The bride is employed by Gamers and the groom by McCarthy Milling, Streetsville.

Guests attended from Truro, Nova Scotia, Guelph, Kitchener, Waterloo, Brampton, Burlington and Ottawa.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honoured with three miscellaneous showers given by Miss C. Weststeyn and Mrs. P. Weststeyn; Mrs. S. Adema and Mrs. A. Verhey, and Miss Anne Bonnance.

Assisting in the receiving line was the groom's mother wearing a three-piece ensemble in grey knit with black accessories and dark brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

For travelling the bride chose a two-piece navy knit dress with gold accessories.

Following the honeymoon the couple will live on Main Street in Georgetown. The bride is employed by Gamers and the groom by McCarthy Milling, Streetsville.

Guests attended from Truro, Nova Scotia, Guelph, Kitchener, Waterloo, Brampton, Burlington and Ottawa.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honoured with three miscellaneous showers given by Miss C. Weststeyn and Mrs. P. Weststeyn; Mrs. S. Adema and Mrs. A. Verhey, and Miss Anne Bonnance.

Assisting in the receiving line was the groom's mother wearing a three-piece ensemble in grey knit with black accessories and dark brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

For travelling the bride chose a two-piece navy knit dress with gold accessories.

Following the honeymoon the couple will live on Main Street in Georgetown. The bride is employed by Gamers and the groom by McCarthy Milling, Streetsville.

Guests attended from Truro, Nova Scotia, Guelph, Kitchener, Waterloo, Brampton, Burlington and Ottawa.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honoured with three miscellaneous showers given by Miss C. Weststeyn and Mrs. P. Weststeyn; Mrs. S. Adema and Mrs. A. Verhey, and Miss Anne Bonnance.

Assisting in the receiving line was the groom's mother wearing a three-piece ensemble in grey knit with black accessories and dark brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

For travelling the bride chose a two-piece navy knit dress with gold accessories.

Following the honeymoon the couple will live on Main Street in Georgetown. The bride is employed by Gamers and the groom by McCarthy Milling, Streetsville.

Guests attended from Truro, Nova Scotia, Guelph, Kitchener, Waterloo, Brampton, Burlington and Ottawa.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honoured with three miscellaneous showers given by Miss C. Weststeyn and Mrs. P. Weststeyn; Mrs. S. Adema and Mrs. A. Verhey, and Miss Anne Bonnance.

Assisting in the receiving line was the groom's mother wearing a three-piece ensemble in grey knit with black accessories and dark brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

For travelling the bride chose a two-piece navy knit dress with gold accessories.

Following the honeymoon the couple will live on Main Street in Georgetown. The bride is employed by Gamers and the groom by McCarthy Milling, Streetsville.

Guests attended from Truro, Nova Scotia, Guelph, Kitchener, Waterloo, Brampton, Burlington and Ottawa.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honoured with three miscellaneous showers given by Miss C. Weststeyn and Mrs. P. Weststeyn; Mrs. S. Adema and Mrs. A. Verhey, and Miss Anne Bonnance.

Assisting in the receiving line was the groom's mother wearing a three-piece ensemble in grey knit with black accessories and dark brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

For travelling the bride chose a two-piece navy knit dress with gold accessories.

Following the honeymoon the couple will live on Main Street in Georgetown. The bride is employed by Gamers and the groom by McCarthy Milling, Streetsville.

Guests attended from Truro, Nova Scotia, Guelph, Kitchener, Waterloo, Brampton, Burlington and Ottawa.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honoured with three miscellaneous showers given by Miss C. Weststeyn and Mrs. P. Weststeyn; Mrs. S. Adema and Mrs. A. Verhey, and Miss Anne Bonnance.

Assisting in the receiving line was the groom's mother wearing a three-piece ensemble in grey knit with black accessories and dark brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

For travelling the bride chose a two-piece navy knit dress with gold accessories.

Following the honeymoon the couple will live on Main Street in Georgetown. The bride is employed by Gamers and the groom by McCarthy Milling, Streetsville.

Guests attended from Truro, Nova Scotia, Guelph, Kitchener, Waterloo, Brampton, Burlington and Ottawa.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honoured with three miscellaneous showers given by Miss C. Weststeyn and Mrs. P. Weststeyn; Mrs. S. Adema and Mrs. A. Verhey, and Miss Anne Bonnance.

Assisting in the receiving line was the groom's mother wearing a three-piece ensemble in grey knit with black accessories and dark brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

For travelling the bride chose a two-piece navy knit dress with gold accessories.

Following the honeymoon the couple will live on Main Street in Georgetown. The bride is employed by Gamers and the groom by McCarthy Milling, Streetsville.

Guests attended from Truro, Nova Scotia, Guelph, Kitchener, Waterloo, Brampton, Burlington and Ottawa.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honoured with three miscellaneous showers given by Miss C. Weststeyn and Mrs. P. Weststeyn; Mrs. S. Adema and Mrs. A. Verhey, and Miss Anne Bonnance.

Assisting in the receiving line was the groom's mother wearing a three-piece ensemble in grey knit with black accessories and dark brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

For travelling the bride chose a two-piece navy knit dress with gold accessories.

Following the honeymoon the couple will live on Main Street in Georgetown. The bride is employed by Gamers and the groom by McCarthy Milling, Streetsville.

Guests attended from Truro, Nova Scotia, Guelph, Kitchener, Waterloo, Brampton, Burlington and Ottawa.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honoured with three miscellaneous showers given by Miss C. Weststeyn and Mrs. P. Weststeyn; Mrs. S. Adema and Mrs. A. Verhey, and Miss Anne Bonnance.

Assisting in the receiving line was the groom's mother wearing a three-piece ensemble in grey knit with black accessories and dark brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

For travelling the bride chose a two-piece navy knit dress with gold accessories.

Following the honeymoon the couple will live on Main Street in Georgetown. The bride is employed by Gamers and the groom by McCarthy Milling, Streetsville.

Guests attended from Truro, Nova Scotia, Guelph, Kitchener, Waterloo, Brampton, Burlington and Ottawa.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honoured with three miscellaneous showers given by Miss C. Weststeyn and Mrs. P. Weststeyn; Mrs. S. Adema and Mrs. A. Verhey, and Miss Anne Bonnance.

Assisting in the receiving line was the groom's mother wearing a three-piece ensemble in grey knit with black accessories and dark brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

For travelling the bride chose a two-piece navy knit dress with gold accessories.

Following the honeymoon the couple will live on Main Street in Georgetown. The bride is employed by Gamers and the groom by McCarthy Milling, Streetsville.

Guests attended from Truro, Nova Scotia, Guelph, Kitchener, Waterloo, Brampton, Burlington and Ottawa.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honoured with three miscellaneous showers given by Miss C. Weststeyn and Mrs. P. Weststeyn; Mrs. S. Adema and Mrs. A. Verhey, and Miss Anne Bonnance.

Assisting in the receiving line was the groom's mother wearing a three-piece ensemble in grey knit with black accessories and dark brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

For travelling the bride chose a two-piece navy knit dress with gold accessories.

Following the honeymoon the couple will live on Main Street in Georgetown. The bride is employed by Gamers and the groom by McCarthy Milling, Streetsville.

Guests attended from Truro, Nova Scotia, Guelph, Kitchener, Waterloo, Brampton, Burlington and Ottawa.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honoured with three miscellaneous showers given by Miss C. Weststeyn and Mrs. P. Weststeyn; Mrs. S. Adema and Mrs. A. Verhey, and Miss Anne Bonnance.

Assisting in the receiving line was the groom's mother wearing a three-piece ensemble in grey knit with black accessories and dark brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

For travelling the bride chose a two-piece navy knit dress with gold accessories.

Following the honeymoon the couple will live on Main Street in Georgetown. The bride is employed by Gamers and the groom by McCarthy Milling, Streetsville.

Guests attended from Truro, Nova Scotia, Guelph, Kitchener, Waterloo, Brampton, Burlington and Ottawa.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honoured with three miscellaneous showers given by Miss C. Weststeyn and Mrs. P. Weststeyn; Mrs. S. Adema and Mrs. A. Verhey, and Miss Anne Bonnance.

Assisting in the receiving line was the groom's mother wearing a three-piece ensemble in grey knit with black accessories and dark brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

For travelling the bride chose a two-piece navy knit dress with gold accessories.