Use Baby Sitters Fire Chief Advises

The holiday season introduces many new fire hazards lests the boose, Firs Chief K. warned Christmas Is a time children, they might face prost danger from tire If they are lett alone and unattended sven shortest interval.

The highly inflammable Christmas tree, decerations giff wrappings make it an imperative duty of all parents to make sure their children are never without responsible supervision.

The fire chief qualed section 189 of the Criminal Cade al Canada: "Every ana who unistitully chandens or expétés a child who is undor the cas of lon years, so that its life is, or is likely to be, endingered, or its health le, or is likely to be permanently injured, is suitty of an indictable offence and is liable to imprison ment for two years." During this sesson of partion and visiting, there is an Increased tendency to leave children slane "just for minute" but it only takes 18 tocande for a Christmas tree to burn furlausly to charred

If you must so out, the fire chief advises, get a responsible baby sitter for the children and you will enjoy your party much more.
