

ESKIMOS AND SLED DOGS CAUGHT JUDGES EYE

THIS WAS THE BEST HOAT in the Santa Claus parade Saturday. Entered by the Canadian Legion it depicted life at the top of the world. It was sketched and planned by Bill Campy, Sid Cross, did the carpentry and Ken Levell provided the working pattern. The Eskimo children were Patty Ann Wright, Mark Hawes, and Doug McDonald, and the Bob Hedley, G. Rogers, Norm McDonald and the driver.

Brampton Pair Open Teen Dances, Guelph

Tul-Bro Productions, which has sponsored a successful Saturday Dance Party in Brampton Orange Hall for some time has extended into Guelph.

Last Friday, Guelph Dance Land for Teens as it will be known, had its grand opening in the Regatta Music Centre, and it was a rousing success.

Teenagers from town have been taking in the Brampton dances and several travelled to Guelph on Friday where the popular young singer Sandy Selvie was the feature attraction, along with the Lucernes.

The same showed packed the house the next night in Brampton.

This Saturday, Brampton features Little Anthony and the Roadrunners. The Blue Notes play at Guelph on the Friday.

As an extra attraction at both dances this week, a young English singer, Hazel McCurdy, will be making her debut in this district.

HORNBY

Hornby Garage Has Milton Parade Float

Hornby Garage had a colorful float in the Santa Claus parade in Milton on Saturday afternoon. Carol Leslie was Mrs. Santa Claus and her helpers were Darlene Leslie, Nancy Robertson, Linda Shields, Pamela Neil, Randy Howden and Donald Leslie and Kevin Howden. Another entrant in the parade was an old car, painted like a police cruiser, by two local chaps.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Anderson motored to Montreal last Tuesday to attend a Bee Keeper's council meeting, returning home on Saturday.

Donald Robertson of Winnipeg, Manitoba, visited with Mrs. W. H. Robinson over the weekend.

Susan Bradley is confined to her home with the mumps. She attends Percy Merry School.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lee on their sixteenth wedding anniversary on December 14th.

Birthday greetings to Axel Peterson on Dec. 14th, to Mrs. William Bailey and Garnet Howden on December 18 and to Ross Bridgen on December 19th.

The afternoon unit of the Hornby United Church Women met at the home of Mrs. Albert Marchant last Thursday, December 6, with nine present. A quilt was tied and a short business session followed with Mrs. Marchant in charge. The scripture was read by Mrs. Stanley Price; Mrs. C. Wrigglesworth gave two short readings and two Christmas carols were sung. Mrs. Marchant announced White Gift, Sunday and plans were made for the January meeting. Mrs. N. Cantelon and Mrs. C. Wrigglesworth assisted the hostess to serve lunch.

Get well wishes are extended to Clebert McDowell who is a patient in the Hamilton General Hospital.

The Christmas meeting of the evening unit of the Hornby United Church Women was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Learmont last Monday evening. Despite the heavy fog, fourteen members were present.

Mrs. Ruth Bousfield presided for the meeting. Mrs. Betty Death gave the Christmas devotional. Christmas gifts were exchanged and the members learned who their secret friend had been through the year. Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by her daughter, Linda.

Sidewalk Decision For 1963 Council

A sidewalk to serve children using Tyers Ave. as access to Holy Cross and Wrigglesworth schools would cost over $1200 according to figures supplied to council Monday by road chairman Fred Harrison.

The previous week a request from Holy Cross school officials was made, expressing the danger involved for children.

There would be no government subsidy for the project, Cr. Harrison said and council decided it could not be considered this year and referred it to the incoming council.

Old Timers Beat Raiders Prove Hockey "Know How"

If Boston Bruins had a scout at the Georgetown Raiders - NHL Oldtimers game Friday night, watch for Todd Sloan, Wally Stanowski, Eric Pogue, Bob Goldham and a couple of others to turn up in a Beantown uniform shortly. Skating an iota slower than they used to, but still displaying the cannonade shot and enough cerebral moxy to fake much younger players out of their CCA's, the Oldtimers didn't look their name in beating the Intermediate A Raiders 5-3 in front of 900 avid onlookers.

The game even had an official faceoff. Harry Goldham, veteran local businessman, and pere of NHLer Bob Goldham, dropped the puck at the centre ice by agreement the most unusual game of hockey that they, John Street edifice has ever sheltered.

Members of both teams were introduced individually, and the polite applause developed into an interesting popularity poll. Bob Goldham, of course, was the crowd favourite. Garry Ingis, Junior Beaumont, Blake Ingis and Gerald Howden of the Raiders. But there was one startling difference. In the latter case, voices and hands were a decade or so younger.

Raiders Old Timers
What the NHL stars of the past and many of the crowd probably didn't realize was that they were practically playing a team of Georgetown Raider Old Timers. Nick Ferri donned the red and white garb for the club; Junior Beaumont is about as much Junior as the Old Timers are Old Timers.

Two former Raiders even showed up as ex-NHLers. Bob Goldham and Murray Ezard, both toiled here before making the big time. One thing was obvious despite their role as aging ambassadors the celebrities are still out to win when they play. Long John Henderson in the goal and Wally Stanowski, basic NHL Old Timers when the following and Long John even converted themselves complete to the idea of being out of December 1st.

THE GEORGETOWN HERALD Thursday, December 12, 1962 PAGE 13

The game that they played first for fun and then for a living with the fringe benefit of playing wide popularity, in playing on members of the touring Old Timers they have completed the cycle and are again playing the game for the love of it.

To be able to do that they must have harbored a spark of unmaterialist eagerness all throughout the punishing schedule of the season of their career. Who says professional athletes don't enjoy the game.

Mountainview Lady Wins Hockey Bond

Mrs. Lloyd Foster, 3 Mountainview Rd N is the winner of the $50 Bond, 1st prize in a draw sponsored by the Superior Foods Hockey Club.

The winner was declared Monday night at the Legion. Basically the NHL Old Timers when Jim Murphy drew the names of former players who cannot be traced. The draw was originally scheduled to have been made of December 1st.

Arch Mason Degree For Twin Brothers

On unique occasion in the history of local Royal Arch Masonry took place last Wednesday when twins Michael and Paul Armstrong received their A.A.M. degree. Their father, Jack Armstrong, is a past principal of the local Halls Chapter No. 234.

The ceremony also featured a visit from Most Excellent Companion Charles W. Emmott, grand first principal of Ontario Grand Chapter, who was accompanied by a number of Grand Lodge officers. Visiting companions were also present from Guelph, Milton, Oakville, Richmond Hill and Brampton.

Plan Building of Beauty, Barber Shop

A building which will house a beauty salon and barber shop will be built on the highway near the Patsy Meehan Motors building.

Monday evening endorsed an entry and exit from the highway to the controlled access area to James Craig Road (Route of Burlington), cutting through the back of Patsy Meehan's building.

Mr. Craig and Mr. Rasmussen were of the meeting and explained that the building, of 122 Guelph St., will be a 400 sq. ft. structure.
