View European Films At Seed House Party

The management and staff of Dominion Seed House held its annual Christmas party on Dec. 13th at St. Alban's Parish hall in Glen Williams, with the crowd estimated to be 400 men, women and children in attendance. The highlight of the evening was the showing of something over two hundred and fifty color transparencies taken by Mrs. Norman Hill on her European tour of the past summer. Many of the photos were of points not normally covered in such tours, making them of keen interest to those who have seen all the standard scenes such as the Tower, the Eiffel Tower, etc. Following the showing of the pictures, Bill Kurzak took charge of a large game with this all ways popular pastime. For a change of routine, a "front door" prize was awarded in a lucky draw to Bill Kurzak, and a "back door" prize to Mrs. Dorothy Mills.

Those who attended the evening were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. George Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Lindsay, Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Beaumont, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dobler, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Kirby, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Chalkin, Mrs. N. Dredger, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Hibbert, Miss Yvonne Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tyers, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson, Mrs. Norman Hill, Mrs. Annie Vannatter, Miss Norma Thompson, Mrs. Edna Logan, Miss Bessie White, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reeve, Mrs. Dorothy Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Peck, Mrs. E. McMann, Mr. and Mrs. Gill Preston, Mrs. J. Smith, Mrs. J. L. Barber, Mrs. Wm. Thomson, Mrs. Henry Lorrman, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Patterson, Mr. John Cornelius, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kurzak, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Vannatter, Mr. and Mrs. G. Davidson, Mrs. W. F. Brudley, Miss Anne Burns, Mr. David Smith.

TOPS Club Being Established Here

You don't have to go to Victoria's to regain that girlish figure, you can form a reducing club in your own neighborhood, as some local women have done.

They plan to join the Y.O.P.S. (Take Off Pounds Satisfactorily) organization when their membership increases. This is a continental wide group who send out information and diets to the member groups.

At the moment they must carry out their own dieting, weigh themselves, and give encouragement. With this knowledge that the other members will have their eyes on the scales too, that doesn't seem to tempting, they claim.

Most of them try to limit themselves to twelve hundred calories a day. Some members plan to lose as much as eighty pounds. If they are successful, they feel they will inspire others to join.

So if you bulge a little, or have a pound or two to spare, call YE 7-4614 and go to a meeting where they will serve truly black coffee.

OAKVILLE

There'll be no racing at Oakville Downs track in 1963. Magistrate Tupper Bigelow, Chairman of the Ontario Racing Commission said last week that the application for racing dates had been turned down. The commission felt that the Toronto-Hamilton area "could not support three harness racing tracks" he said.

THEY'LL MAKE MUSIC FOR REFORMATORY INMATES

The local dance combo known as the "Manhattans", will go to Brampton Reformatory Friday night, not to reform, but to perform. The group, consisting of George Brown (drums), Ian Cass (guitar), Hughie Hugter (sax), Bernard Shrubsole, (bass), and Ralph Ursel (accordion with or soloist Tom Darcie, will not be on a stage apart from the boys, but will sit around informally in one of the barracks playing and singing WITH the boys rather than for them.

Anyone who wants to play out and do his stuff. According to band leader Ralph Ursel, he felt some slight apprehension before their first visit last year. Would they be accepted or merely tolerated? However, they seemed to be simply enjoyed. So they look forward to this visit with no misgivings. "With this audience we do not have to worry about them walking out on us," quips Mr. Ursel.

Beaumont Mill Staff Dinner at Inglewood

To help Stephen Hunter celebrate his birthday last Saturday, his father took him and his friends on a visit to see the animals at Riederdale Zoo in Toronto.

About eighty persons, including employees, their husbands, wives and friends of Beaumont's Mill partook of a delicious turkey dinner last Saturday night, catered by the ladies of the United Church in Inglewood. The tables laden with all the good food looked very inviting with white cloths and red place mats and Christmas centerpieces. Star decorations and candlelight added to the atmosphere.

After all had partaken of the fine food they adjourned to the hall across the street where all joined in the festivities. Mr. C. Davidson was master of ceremonies for the carol singing, games, dancing and exchange of gifts. Everyone expressed their appreciation of the friendly get-together for which Mr. S. Penrice and Mr. G. Graham were responsible.

Two little girls, Bonnie Kirby and Paulene Heaton are home again after having tonsils removed in Georgetown & District Hospital. Carolyn Everson has been home from school sick for nearly two weeks. Get well soon, Carolyn.

The ladies of St. Alban's catered to the Dominion Seed House Christmas Dinner last Wednesday night. About fifty employees enjoyed a turkey dinner and all the trimmings.

Last Sunday night some of our young people enjoyed the Christmas Choral Service at St. John's in town, while others participated in the service at Maple Ave. Baptist.

At this time all the churches give us such fine music. The good old Christmas carols are always enjoyed. Speaking of carols, if you listen next Sunday evening you'll probably hear carollers near your door. They will be the young people

Dingo the Dwarf For Young Audience

A very enthusiastic Sunday School group presented the annual Christmas Concert for parents and friends in St. Andrew's United Church Hall on December 13th.

From the very youngest beginners' class under the direction of their teacher Mrs. W. Baker to the older children from the other departments, the joy of entertaining was apparent, and stage fright forgotten.

Dingo the Dwarf, a mere 29 inches tall was very popular with the audience and the hall rocked with laughter as he went through his antics.

Rev. K. Johnston at the piano and Paul Baker at the organ provided musical accompaniment for the concert and the Sunday in Advent.

Present White Gifts To Cedarvale School

Children of St. Andrew's Sunday School brought gifts in a special White Gift Service on Sunday, December 16th. The gifts were dedicated at the morning church service by Rev. K. Johnston and are being sent to Cedarvale School for Girls.

The junior and intermediate classes sang "Harken All! What Holy Singing!" during the service. Children presented for baptism were William Rex, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Summicks, and Richard Dalton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Moore.

Mr. Johnston chose as his sermon topic "The Gift With a Difference" for this third Frank Ferguson acted as the
