THE MERRIEST OF CHRISTMAS'S THIRTY-TWO WAYS

The above Christmas card is unique in the world. It conveys season's greetings in thirty two different languages, and some of the wishes like 'God Jul' are common to more than one country. The 28 ladies in costumes of nationality groups indicate also only part of the make-up of our population, wherein each enjoys the opportunity to preserve a cherished heritage while contributing to the cultural wealth of Canada. Very often the key to successful integration is the outstretched hand of welcome plus a friendly greeting. What warmer greeting is there to our new Canadians than that of Yuletide. The greetings from top left to right are Italian, Hungarian, Polish Ukrainian, Swedish, and Norwegian; German, Dutch, Irish, Greek, Slovak, Russian, Syrian, Bulgarian and Macedonian, Lithuanian, Czech, French, English, Rumanian, Scottish, Latvian, Finnish, Estonian, Chinese, Serbian, Byelorussian, Danish, Japanese, Welsh, Croatian, Maltese, Slovenian, Portuguese.

8 Goal Spurge Beats Red Raiders

Georgetown Raiders are still spinning. They lost another one Tuesday night when the short staff red cross fired badly in the third period and allowed Midland to fire 8 unanswered goals. Absenteeism was again the fault, as Scotty Patterson had just four forwards and three defencemen to throw in front of the steamrolling Merchants. The missing part is that the Raiders stayed with their opponents for two periods. It was 3-0 at the end of the 1st period and 3-1 after two. Blake Inglis scored Raiders first goal from Blackie Graham. Gord Thompson netted the second from Doug Richardson, and Max Galand was the second period scorer from Blake Inglis and Doug Richardson. Barry Smith stepped a lot of rubber in holding the score down for two periods but Werchall fooled him three times, Robinson twice, Ewer, Homink and Bolkwell once each. The Raiders have now lost five of their last six and have plunged from a lofty lead back into the rest of the field. They will be trying to break their fall Friday when they meet Dundas Grifions here.

Bell, Walker Firms Have Joint Party

A joint party for staff of P. Graham Bell Associates and the Robert H. Walker Co. was held last Friday at the Armstrong Ave. plant of the two firms. Wives and children of employees were invited for a puppet show, films and a visit from Santa who distributed gifts to the children. Refreshments were served to conclude a happy holiday party.

Thirteen Assist Post Office Staff

Thirteen part-time staff have been recruited by Postmaster Harold Marshall so that the flood of Christmas mail will be processed and delivered in good time this year. Russ Bradley, John Hoppes and Tom Marshall are assisting with house to house delivery; Mrs. G. Osborne, Mrs. A. Bonner, Mrs. B. Reid, Mrs. A. McIntosh, David Kenner, Mrs. E. Rayner and Mrs. H. Beckett are inside letter staff helpers. Mrs. E. Horne and Mrs. G. Gunn have been added to the forward letters department and Peter Lavell to parcel post.

Couples Club Party At Cedarvale School

The St. Andrew's Couples Club held their Christmas party Saturday night at the Cedarvale School for Girls, where thirty couples and guests, and the staff and girls of the school, took part. Rev. Kelvin Johnston led in devotions and the Cedarvale girls choir sang twice, and performed a candle lighting ceremony. The guest speaker of the evening was Rev. Ian Fleming of St. John's United Church. At the close of the devotional period Rev. and Mrs. Kelvin Johnston, on behalf of the Couples Club, presented each of the girls of the school with a gift. Dancing was enjoyed later and the evening was terminated with a buffet supper. The Couples Club meets again on Jan. 26th.

Report Heavy Mail At Hornby Office

The Christmas mail at the Hornby Post Office is heavier than ever before. The mail truck had to make two calls at the Post Office. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie, the rural mail carriers, took route 2 and returned for route 1 mail on Monday morning. The Independent Order of Foresters' members and their families from this district attended their annual Christmas party at the Legion on Sunday afternoon. The Hornby North 411 Home-making Club held their Christmas party last Friday evening. The members, with their leader, went to a show in Milton, then returned to the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. Hill where they exchanged gifts and lunch was served.
