Oakville Midgets Win From Locals

Thursday, December 20th, the Georgetown Midgets and Oakville teagled in Oakville, but apparently Oakville hadn't heard about the Christmas spirit. At the end of three periods, it was Oakville 2, Georgetown 1.

Oakville opened the scoring, D. Prouton from Ralston and Georgetown had it. Al Blair from Red Presswood and Jim Pappell, Georgetown went ahead on a goal by Jerry Lane from Mike Cummins and Jim Blair, only to have Oakville tie it up. Blair unassisted, Prouton from McCauley, and Blair got the winners.

Georgetown had several penalties, Terry May, Doug Malcolm, Marty Wheeler, Mike Cummins and Rick (Beaver) Braly by being the offenders. Oakville got 3 penalties. Next home game is Burlington at Georgetown December 27th.

Saturday, December 22nd Mr. and Mrs. James Blair, 34 Hamman Crescent, were hosts of the Midget team and their friends when they had their Christmas party. They also honoured their coach Dal Beaumont, and had and Bill James, manager and assistant manager, and convener Art Sheppard with gifts.
