LEGION NOTES

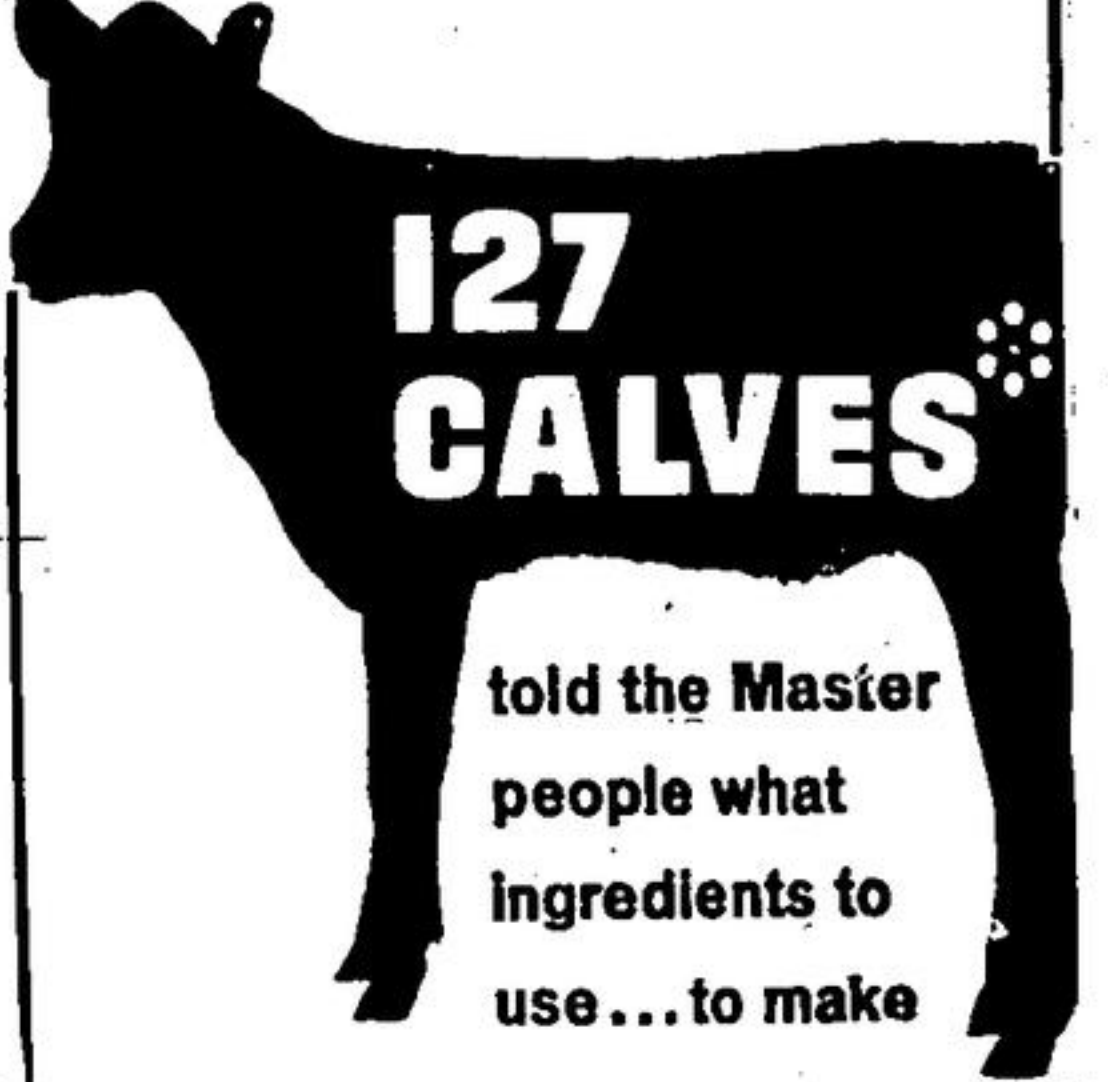

by Andy A. St. Laurent

A mob of 350 children showed up at the Legion auditorium Tuesday, Dec. 18th to see Santa Claus and hoping he may have some gifts for them.

He was there, and he did have gifts for them. Under the able supervision of organizer Gob Collier, the children were called forward by age group and were handed gifts, candies, and oranges, then a small chat with Santa first to make sure he had received their lists of gifts they wished to receive.

According to Gob it was wonderful to see all the kids getting such a big "kick" out of receiving gifts and talking with Santa.

The Legion Christmas tree idea originated many years ago and I think it is a wonderful gesture on the part of the Legion to hold this annual affair and sponsor it as well. I'm sure that I wouldn't be stepping out of line here by saying on behalf of all the kids who attended the Xmas tree. Thank You again to mobile drivers... On Nov. 20th Branch 120 for their kind-ness and thank you to Gob sure you have a car.
