"GOT IT!"
BUSY BARRY SMITH overcame the Fort Erie Jinx Friday night here and limited his nemesis to just two goals as Raiders won 4-2 in a wild and wooly affair. The Fort's humble total wasn't because of lack of scoring chances. Snipers peppered Smith every period.

CURLING CHATTER

Is my face red? Last week "Something has to be done there appeared in this column soon or the players are going to list of winners for the ladies' to be swinging at each other division as supplied by 'Mrs. with brooms' he says E. Curry. There were a couple Dubiel is 25, a six-footer of names that she could not afford mien, but he makes his remember, so I checked with points about curling with hand Mrs. S. Mackenzie, who sup-gestures and unmistakable hit plied the missing names. And terness.

"Sure, the game is booming" the former semi-pro baseball umpire said in an interview after the season windup at Montreal's four-sheet Greyston Curling Club.

"What rules are the attitude of the newcomers to curling?" and they make up most of the players

"More so than any other sport, there is squawking and bickering."

"No one is ever a loser at it isn't in his own mind They'll find someone or some at the rink last Saturday in 'Ding to blame' for every fall the last end of the last draw are in the mixed bonspiel a rock a sample of locking room that was supposed to clean heels and excuse house on fee hit a guard and crossed over to ice 2. A lady from Fergus was sweeping a rock on ice 2 and did not see the runaway One of the sweepers from ice 1 saved the lady from falling but in the scramble the rock was burned and had to be taken off the ice. It was a tough break for the fee 2 those rocks were all the players as the opposition tied per weight."

Seasoned curlers fellows who have been at it for 10 years or more, are exempted by Dubiel. "They seldom say much" Women for the most part fall into the same category In mixed competition they undergo a big change, shedding draws, so that you can keep up to date and cheer on your favorite team.

Last week saw the start of the new schedule that will run until February 12th. Next week we will start to publish the standing of the teams in both draws, so that you can keep all doctily.

"They pick up their cue from the men and then they're just as bad," he said

Here is a clipping taken from the Globe and Mail of last May His pet peeve, however, is the glass skip "He's the fellow who sits in the gallery behind the glass

Four years as an ice-maker with a drink in hand and pants bie that curling needs a new game.

"He never misses a shot."
