

Milton Reeve is 1963 County Warden

DR. C. A. MARTIN

Members were sworn in individually by Judge George E. Elliott. Following the oath taking, Reverend D. A. Powell, Rector of Grace Anglican Church, Milton conducted a brief service of dedication.

Only three changes occurred in County Council membership this year. Reeve H. Hinton of Acton replaced R. J. Hargrave, Dep. Reeve James Bell of Milton replaced J. Charlton and Dep. Reeve W. J. Coullier of Nassagaweya took the place of J. Robertson who became Reeve, replacing Jack Milne.

Rule Councillor Can do Business

Council was told by town solicitor George Hewson on Tuesday that it is proper for the Turret Supply firm to continue selling calgon to the town as a water additive.

An incoming councillor, Jim Young, notified council in December that his firm would cease sale to the town following his election.

Mr. Hewson's letter said Mr. Young is a salaried employee of an incorporated company and as such can deal with the town.

Family Gave Name To Downtown Hotel

Mrs. George Herbert MacFarland died in Toronto General Hospital on New Year's day. The former Jean Lois McGibbon, she was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McGibbon who for many years operated the hotel on Main St. which still carries the family name.

Mrs. MacFarland was born in Georgetown, attended public and high school here and Harvard College in Toronto. She had lived in the city since her marriage.

THREE CHILDREN

She leaves her husband, three children, William of Seattle, Washington, John of Toronto and Mrs. Charles Brewer (Sandra) of Richardson, Texas; six grandchildren, and sisters Mrs. Roy Van Dusen (Hazel) of Tara, Gladys of 64 Main St., S. Georgetown and first Mrs. Fletcher Binner (Anne) of Westhampton Beach, Long Is. four months of 1962, following the death of Wilfrid Bird. On a sister Mrs. Marie Anderson and brother Jack, Robert and David McGibbon.

Rev. Scott Duncan of Arden Heights Presbyterian Church conducted the funeral only temporarily, said Mr. Young on January 4th at the Merry, "next year if given the same chance, I'll try for it."

HERE'S A SWITCH—SCOUTS COOK FOR GUIDES

EATING FRIED CHICKEN prepared by Patrol Leaders from the 3rd Georgetown Scout Troop might have been worth a merit badge to Guide Patrol Leaders who were their dinner guests recently except for one thing—it was delicious. Above two of the Scouts behold their masterpieces of cookery as they remove the chicken legs from the oven just before delivering them to a table of hungry Guides.

"JUST PERFECT", exclaim the femmes as they sink their teeth into the first flavourful bite. The Scouts, Wayne Densmore, Kim Gunn and Tom Bradley hosted Guide leaders, Giella Emmerson, Valerie Kitzner, Carol McGivray, Lynn Ritchie and Carol Lane, and even did the dishes after the last piece of fried food had disappeared. The feast was held in the Scout Cabin, the whereabouts of which is a well-guarded secret.

Consult Carr For Town Engineering

Council's road committee was authorized Tuesday to engage William H. Carr for engineering services as deemed necessary.

The action was taken following resignation of works superintendent Geoffrey Bligh which took effect at the year-end. Mr. Carr served the town in a consulting capacity a few years ago before the town decided to engage a full-time engineer.

Social & Personal

Mrs. John Cordaro, 45 Main St. N. is visiting in London with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Smith and then plans a visit in Trenton with her son, Sgt. Bill Preston and family.

High School student Ernie Sykes, Jr., 24 Victoria Cres., whose father operates the Scotch Bakery, motored to Provo, Utah, during the Christmas holidays to visit with friends there.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hachman and children, Dieter and Bernice of 164 Guelph St. motored to Florida during the Christmas holidays. They visited in Englewood with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zimmer, who formerly lived near Brampton.

Board Appointments

Reappointment of several men to positions on local boards was made by council on Tuesday.

Bob Lane, Ivan Crabtree, Art Scott, Clarence King and Jack Gudgeon will serve another year on the Community Centres board which operates the swimming pool. The door was jammed open during the early morning hours of Sunday, but the burglars found nothing more than a hand full of small coins in the till drawer.

It is expected the same pair made an attempt to enter Rabson's General Store in Norval the same night.

Mr. Rabson told The Herald he was awakened in the middle of the night by his watchdog's barking. He said he got up and inspected the store and found nothing wrong. Just before returning to bed he noticed out the window and noticed a car driving away with out its lights on. In the morning he found a broken hammer at the foot of the front door and scraps in the wood around the lock.

Break-in Again At Glen Williams Store

Burglars netted about $8.00 for a night's work on the week end.

Preston's Grocery in Glen Williams was the target for the second time for the second time in a matter of a few weeks, but this time proprietor Leo Preston was ready for them. The door was jammed open during the early morning hours of Sunday, but the burglars found nothing more than a hand full of small coins in the till drawer.

It is expected the same pair made an attempt to enter Rabson's General Store in Norval the same night.

Set Sub Post Office For Young's Pharmacy

Georgetown downtown section will not lose post office facilities "on the spot" when the new post office opens shortly.

It was announced that the Postal Dept. has authorized the establishment of a sub-post office at Young's Pharmacy, where postal facilities will be available to residents in the downtown area. Mr. Sandy Best, Halton P.C. representative made the announcement today.

With a sub-post office in the Delrex plaza, and the one located in Young's Pharmacy, the new location of the post office should mean that all areas of the town will be adequately served.

Three Year Appointments

Three year appointments were also endorsed for Dick Licata and Kenneth MacDonall to the cemetery board, J. R. Bellamy to the public library board, Claude Kentner and Irwin Noble to the Committee of Adjustment, Claude Kentner to the Planning Board.

Hewson Crescent resident Robert Francis was named to fill a two-year term on the planning board which Mayor Hyde resigned in December. And Crs Young and Gray will represent council on that board this week.

Winter Works

Council's winter works committee comprises the chairman of Finance, property, public works, water and roads.

Mayor Hyde is chairman of the committee and members are Crs Young, Smith, Emmerson and Hildebrandt.

Last Inaugural in Old Township Hall

What is likely to be the last inaugural meeting of the Esquimaux Township Council to be held in the present municipal building took place Monday morning of this week, with five E. Norman Young of Knox Presbyterian Church, Georgetown and Lambton Presbyterians conducting the religious service.

Frednie Hall had the misfortune to be the victim of a fall gun accident, Sunday morning. He was hit in the hip and it was necessary to take him to the hospital to receive medical aid.

Mr. Walter Lawson, who has been a patient in Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital since Christmas night, underwent surgery Monday morning and is making favourable progress.

Miss Alice Briggs has extended her holiday from school, suffering from chicken pox.

We had the pleasure of interviewing Mr. Roy Thomson, owner and publisher of the newspapers, including the Georgetown Herald, Mr. Thomson was interviewed by Mrs. Betty Kennedy on her Monday 99 afternoon program.

Farmers' Club Members See Nigeria Pictures

Members of Terra Cotta Farmers Club had a trip to Nigeria words and pictures when Mrs. Ted Humphrey spoke at the January meeting on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey, who now live in Bramalea, spent a year in Nigeria where he was a teacher. Her coloured slides showed some of the towns, hospitals and schools. Native costumes and crafts were brought back to Canada by the couple, and she also had some of these on display.

The meeting was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex McKinnon and the ladies, as usual, had their own meeting first, when they answered roll call with "A New Year's resolution I hope to keep." Mrs. Jim McKinnon gave a New Year's paper and president Mrs. Fraser Macdonald was in charge of the meeting.

At the joint meeting Owens Macdonald presided and Mrs. Donald Dolson sang two solos. Mrs. Wilfrid Leslie thanked those contributing to the program and with Mrs. Fred Lyons assisted the hostess in serving lunch.

The February meeting is planned as a bowling party in Georgetown and the group will end up at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Anderson for a social time.
