Institute Is Told of Farm Trip to Britain

The first meeting of the New Year for Norval Women's Institute was held on Thursday afternoon, January 10, at the home of Mrs. Wm. Graham, Georgetown, with Mrs. E. Burk, vice-president, in the chair.

The meeting opened with the Institute Ode, the Mary Stewart Collect and the Lord's Prayer, after which the minutes were read and adopted, followed by the Roll Call answered by naming a "responsibility" of the W.I. members. Conveners gave interesting two minute reports.

The Public Relations Committee, Mrs. H. Smellie and Mrs. K. Arnold were in charge of the program. Mrs. Smellie gave a very good motto on "Where you will be tomorrow depends on the road you take today."

Mrs. H. Collins gave a very interesting talk on her recent Farm Trip to Scotland, England and Wales. Her large collection of pictures, books and pamphlets on the many spots of interest on the itinerary were of special interest. Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. L. Cleave and Mrs. O. Hunter.

The Norval Local Association for Guides and Brownies met at the home of Mrs. O. Carter on Tuesday evening, January 8th with the president, Mrs. S. Fishburn in the chair.

The meeting opened with the Guide Prayer followed by minutes and Roll Call. Guide Captain Mrs. N. Guthrie reported on the Guide activities and Brown Owl Mrs. D. Smith reported for the Brownies. Goldie Coe, Gwen Webb, Penny Reynolds and Cathy Carter passed their tests for their "House-Orderly" badges. The "Family Night" for the Guides, Brownies, Scouts and Meranwhile the Explorers were introduced to their new book, "Tiger Tail Village" Parish Hall on February 22 by Mrs. John Ruddle and Mrs. John Bird. It is about a refugee family in Hong Kong.

Edward Bird displayed some interesting Chinese curios and John Nurse gave a brief report on Hong Kong and their living conditions today. Teena Bette-War reported on the ship service was in charge of Sandra McLaughlin and Janet Coxe; prayer by Douglas Ruddle and Jimmie Critchell; offering taken by Lois McNabb and Janet Nurse with closing prayer by Donald McClure.

The children made a donation to the Bible Society for Gospel in foreign lands. Kenneth McNabb and Thelma Carney played special music for the joint meeting. A recreation period followed by a devotional period thanks and lunch was provided by Mrs. John Mitchell and Mrs. Hervey Nurse.

Miss Marilyn Wilson attended the Junior Farmer's Convention held in Toronto, Saturday, January 12th at the King Edward Hotel. Marilyn was in the public speaking division with twenty-one others. She wasn't in the winners, but we congratulate her for trying and wish her better luck next year.

Brian Coe returned to the School for the Deaf at Belleville last week-end after spending the Christmas holidays with his parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Coe and Goldie.

Show Cancer Films To Ballinafad W.I.

Mrs. E. McEnery was hostess for the Institute meeting on Wednesday night. Mrs. L. McLean was the convener of the program which was on the health and the motto "Health is God's Gift; your part is to claim it" was very ably presented by Mrs. William Kirkwood.

The roll call was a "Cure for the Blues" and was answered by 20 ladies. The guest speaker for the evening was Mrs. Rae West of Acton who is a representative for the Canadian Cancer Society and two films, one of work of the Society and the other on the Princess Margaret Hospital and Lodge were then shown by Mr. Broomhead of Georgetown.

Current events had been prepared by Mrs. C. Snow and lunch was served by Mrs. R. Kirkwood, Mrs. D. Brown and Mrs. A. McEnery. A eulogy was announced for January 19 at the home of Mrs. J. Snow.

On Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Fleming conducted a fellowship hour at the manse when about 14 enjoyed a sing-song of hymns and broke up into small groups for Bible study and discussions on the new book "The Word and the Way." It was most interesting and Mrs. Fleming served a cup of tea.

Mrs. Donald McLean had the misfortune to slip and fall off the end of her verandah on Monday morning and broke her hip. She is at present in the Guelph Hospital and hopes to be home in two or three weeks but will be off her feet for some time. Mr. Alex Mitchell is also back in Georgetown hospital and we wish both a speedy recovery.

Miss Jean Lawr was home for four days from Brantford over the week end.

Six men from the Ballinafad AOTS attended a dinner meeting at St. John's Church in Georgetown on Tuesday night sponsored by the men's group there.

The Ballinafad Scout Mothers' Auxiliary met for their first meeting of the year on Tuesday night with Mrs. Anzures presiding. Reports were heard from the various committees and a nominating committee was chosen to bring in a slate of officers for the next meeting.

The Ashgrove Messengers Quite a lengthy discussion and Explorers met in the took place on ways and means church on Sunday afternoon of getting the parents interested more actively in the scout movement.
