FIVE YEAR PLEDGE COMPLETED IN THREE

IODE MEMBERS Mrs. Ed Wilson and Mrs. Sam Penrice turn over the final pledge payment to Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital treasurer, Mrs. William Hamilton in front of the semi-private room that the IODE money furnished. The five year pledge was completed in less than three years. Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Penrice were instrumental in raising much of $1,500 required through penny sales. Other funds came from bake sales, and a raffle. Ironically Mrs. Hamilton is also a member of the IODE.

Establish Ida Norton Memorial Church Fund

The annual congregational "Stall I Wear" which consisted of the making of a blouse was held last Wednesday evening in the church with Rev. Freely in the chair and Mrs. C. Barth as secretary. Minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved. Rev. Freely gave the session report, reviewing the highlights of the past year, namely, the dedication service of the new addition to the church held in April, a study group formed to study "The Word and the Way", a membership class held weekly. The auditor's report was given by W. Schenk the treasurer's report, A. Hunsdale, treasurer's report, a successful year. The Missionary and Maintenance Fund showed about $600. The Sunday School report was satisfactory. The U.C.W. treasurer reported, showing 13 members, with 11 meetings having been held in the year. The report was most encouraging showing that the money had been raised by rummage sales, teas, bake sales, carding and monthly collections. A great deal of their income went into furnishings for the church addition.

Make Animal Toys For Fall Bazaar

Mr. W. McGowan gave the Building Fund report which was encouraging. Mr. C. Allen moved a vote of thanks to the choir leader, Mrs. J. Hunter and Mrs. H. Inglis, organist, for their music each Sunday. Elders are Bert Dixon, chairman; John Hunter, W. McGowan, N. Felker and H. Hancock. The Stewards are: W. Schenk, J. Hunter, H. Hancock, L. Marchmont, B. Moody, A. Hunsdale, W. McGowan. Envelope Stewards: Mrs. J. Wagstaffe; M. & M. Steward, J. McGowan; Flower Fund, Mrs. W. McGowan; Auditors: W. Schenk, Bev. Moody and B. Dixon.

WORDS OF THE WISE

Last Saturday was 4th Achievement Day, held in the Agricultural Building in Brampton. Three Glen girls belong to the Terra Cotta club, and which Mrs. C. G. Bishop is a member of. Catherine and Karen and Ellen Hunter took part in the project "What

Arts, Crafts Support New Hockley School

Members of the Arts and Crafts of Georgetown expressed interest in the Hockley Valley School of Fine Arts & Crafts when Mrs. Lingwood reported on this at their January meeting. The school is planned to be of real and lasting value, Mrs. Lingwood said, not only to those who visit, study and enjoy it, but also to the interest in the arts in Ontario and in all Canada.

Courses for the summer are being finalized and excellent teachers are being procured. In addition to the better known crafts like spinning, weaving and painting, there are courses being offered in Scandinavian gymnastics, Japanese flower arranging, landscape gardening and opera. Ski lodges and other buildings in the Hockley Valley, northeast of Orangeville will provide studios and classrooms. Local and residential students will be welcome. The school and the association which has been formed to administer its affairs are non-profit. In answer to a plea for financial support the Arts & Crafts of Georgetown has donated $100 which entitles it to an honorary life membership as a founder patron.

Christmas Decorations Ballinfad Wedding

Candles, a lighted Christmas tree and poinsettia decorated Ballinfad United Church on December 27th for the marriage of Elizabeth Ellen (Beth) McEnery and John Henry Pearson. Rev. Kelvin Johnston, minister of St. Andrew's and Eden United Churches officiated with Duncan Fleming, student minister at Ballinfad, assisting. The bride wore an organza and lace gown with short sleeves and full length hooped skirt. Beads, pearls and sequins accented the scalloped neckline and she wore a crown of flowers with pearls and sequins and a shoulder length veil. She carried a cascade of red roses and ivy.

White Fur and Satin Mrs. Emerson Banks of Shelburne was matron of honour. She wore a red velvet gown with scalloped neckline, full skirt and a white fur and satin hat and carried a cascade of red carnations and white mums. Bridesmaids Sheila Sinclair, Guelph and Kathryn Sinclair, Ballinfad, who are the bride's cousins and junior bridesmaid Anne McGowan of Burlington, a niece of the groom, wore similar red velvet gowns. They wore white fur clip hats and carried white fur muffs, both trimmed with red carnations and holly.

Miss Helen Landborough of Aton was organist and the bride's aunt, Mrs. F. J. Short sang "O Perfect Love" before the ceremony and "O Father, All Creating" while the registrar was signed.

Eighty guests attended a reception which followed in the church basement where the groom's mother received her bride in a bronze-green brocade wearing matching hat, dark green and a corsage of yellow lilyan roses. Mrs. C. McGregg, wearing a rose shantung sheath dress with rose hat brown ascot and a corsage of talisman

Plans were made to hold a home bake sale at the United rest home. Watch the "room" for the date. The members are all good cooks. Members received the name of their unknown friend for the year. The meeting closed with prayer and Mrs. Thomas Warnes and Mrs. Harry Scott were lunch hostesses.

Saturday evening, members of St. John's church, along with their friends enjoyed a dance at the Church Hall. Music was supplied by Robert Armstrong husband, who farms at R.R. 3, with his amplifier and speaker. Potato chips and pop provided the refreshment for the evening.

True happiness is of a re- tured nature, and an enemy to pomp and noise, it arises in the first place, from the enjoyment of one's self, and in the next, from the friend- ship and conversation of a few select companions. —Joseph Addison
