

Minor Hockey Week Starts Saturday

Be Like the Teachouts — Make His Game a Family Affair

Lorne Teachout, of 43 Norton Cres., is one of the lucky boys in Georgetown Minor Hockey. When he plays his 'parents' are there to give him vocal support. Actually Lorne is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert 'Berf' Teachout. He has lived with his grandparents since infancy and to him they are as fine a 'mom and dad' as a hockey player could wish for. Lorne's a defenseman for the Quebec Aces of the American League and like all Saturday morning ning pucksters he gets his turn at playing during the 'early shift' which starts at 6.45 a.m. At left, he greets the day at 5.30 and gets a cup of cocoa to help clear the cobwebs. At the arena (centre) it's awful nice to have somebody to give a 'fella' a hand with his equipment. On the ice and ready to go, Lorne gets some wise advice from his 'cheering section' as his 'dad' tells him to do what the coach says. The coach — hmhm — there's another folks' that has to rise and shine early. In fact there are hundreds in the Minor Hockey organization, players, coaches, and behind the scenes workers, who would feel rewarded to see parents exercise the Minor Hockey Week slogan and 'take' not 'send' their boy to the arena.

KID HOCKEY

Some real thrilling hockey was produced for the benefit of the few spectators on hand at the John St. ice palace last Saturday morning, as can be witnessed from the results listed below.

Some sort of record must have been set in the NHL with all four games finishing up in 3-all ties and the Jr. 'A's' continuing in the same pattern with three tie sessions until Guelph finally broke the spell by squeezing out a 1-0 win over Marlies. We can certainly look forward to some real thrills come play-off time, the way all teams are shaping up, which of course can largely be attributed to the time and efforts put into this program by coaches and managers of all teams.

We are still hoping for a little more interest to be shown by all parents and to make a special effort to come down and watch your young pucksters displaying their talents. So for the beginning of Minor Hockey Week in Canada next Saturday, January 26 let's practice the motto of the week "Don't send your boy to the arena, bring him."

All Saturday morning hockey players don't forget the Minor Hockey Church Parade next Sunday, January 27th. The parade will fall in at the Legion Hall at 2:30 p.m. Let's have a 100% turnout for this special event.

Tickets are still available for the Minor Hockey Dance in the Legion Auditorium, Friday, February 1st, 1963. Admission, $2.00 a couple. These tickets may be obtained from any of the following: Jim Ford, Jim Yates, Herb Robinson and from the Steward at Branch 120.

North Halton GOLF and COUNTRY CLUB

Two teams from the North won by H. Taylor's team from Halton Club competed in the G. and V. Valley with a total of 28½ points. Two game winners were from Etobicoke with 25 points and was skipped by T. Thornhill. One game winner was the team skipped by our own Jim Linton.

The eleven o'clock draw was won by T. Carr of Dixie with 28½ points. The two game winner was the team of C. Smith of Guelph with a total of 23½ points and the one game winner was localite Don Schenk.

This Saturday will see the club playing for the Brier and McLaughlin trophy. You can enter a team or as individuals in the event, so that all who wish to play have a chance.

Playdowns are in progress at the local club to send one team to the Colts playdowns at Richmond Hill on February 18th and to the Rose Bowl, Brampton on February 21st.

A light flood was put on the rink on Friday and it helped to level off the ice and get rid of the dirt that had collected. This will make for better ice in the weeks ahead.

The social curling that was to have started on Sunday evening had to be abandoned, but I have been assured that it will get underway this Sunday at seven o'clock. Plans call for 32 curlers to participate in the first of the series. This should prove a popular recreation for the Sunday evenings when no picked teams will play; the curlers in order of their arrival at the rink. Both ladies and men are cordially invited to take part.

Here is the standing of the rinks after five games were played, as of January 18th:

Eleven Weeks 'Till Tourney

With 24 entries now in, things are shaping up for another real hockey week in Georgetown come Easter week. Thus far three new entries will add to the colour of the week with far east Dartmouth, N.S., and that wonderful guy from the west Vince Leah, sports editor of the Winnipeg Tribune accompanying his team from West Kildonan, Verdon, Quebec, will replace Mount Royal, who are unable to come. Thornhill is also a new entry.

It is now time for all good volunteers to come forth. A multitude of jobs are involved in this tournament and even if it is only a couple of hours you can spare to help us out, I would be greatly appreciated.

This is your tournament, citizens of Georgetown, and only the fine cooperation of everyone involved can make it as great a success as it has been in the past two seasons. When requests for invitations come from the eastern seaboard and the USA, someone must be doing our contribution to Minor Hockey.

Following are a list of jobs which are minor but essential to any game or tourney: Time keepers, referees, goal judges, ticket sellers, gate men, dressers, room attendants and volunteers with cars. If you have a

STOPPER IS TOPPER IN PLEASURE CLASS

ROY INSON SITS atop Stopper Nick, one of the prides of his Wynfield Stock Farm herd, which last week earned the title of best Pleasure Horse from the Ontario Western Horse Association. In 16 competitions in the province last year, the Georgetown steed capped 10 firsts. Georgetown people saw Stopper Nick in a demonstration of 'cutting' at the Rodeo last summer.
