Elect Church Officers At St. John's Meeting

The annual meeting of St. John's United Church was held in the church hall on January 28th, with Rev. Ian Fleming as chairman and some fifty members of the church attending.

Following opening devotions and confirmation of the minutes of the last annual meeting, Mr. Fleming reported on the year.

Rochester Man Was Former Town Resident

A town resident some years ago, Clinton Herrington, 69, died in Rochester, N.Y. last week. A brother of Mrs. Fred McNally of town, he lived in the house beside the John St. arena at one time.

Mr. Herrington was a native of Brighton Township and was the youngest son of Henry and Jane Anne Fahlhoff Herrington.

SOUND AND HEALTHY

He stressed that while he had made hundreds of visits, there is need for more to be done in this regard and time is the major problem in keeping up this phase of his ministry. Church life, he feels, is healthy and sound.

According to the annual statement over $29,000 was received in the major funds of the church, with over $5,000 being given to missionary and maintenance work.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Officers elected for various positions were: Elders, Howard Holmes, Stewart Hall, Stewards, David Hall, Cecily Davidson, Trevor Williams, Earl Lamer, Tom Tooten, Richard Hogan, Stewards newly elected for three year terms are Dennis Carr, Jack Hamilton, Harvey Handy, Jim McBryde, Stan Wright, Henk Baas, Gerald Getty, Roy Wilson and Charles Bailey.

Army Band Plays For High School

The Royal Canadian Regiment Band under the direction of Music Captain J. Purcell, C.D., ARCM, played in a packed high school auditorium here Monday morning. The band is playing at a number of selected schools throughout the province as part of a recruiting tour.

Included in the one-hour musical program were: "March Lorraine," Quebec Pink Fantasy, "Post Horn Gallop" (conducted by S. St. Jansen), "Ballet Paraisan," "La Birgine de la Macassina" (soloist, Janette, Ms. Fea), "The Exodus Theme" and other pieces.

LADY DARTS

Roger Smith was chairman for the dinner and Douglas Pezice proposed the toast to the Queen. John Cardingley thanked the W.A. ladies for providing the delicious turkey dinner. Games were present and Mrs. Chapman and Mrs. McMullen by Randy Pope and John Chamberlain.

Following dinner, George Kier showed some movies in the group.

Saturday Accidents

Just when it was beginning to appear that 1963 could see a record low in traffic accidents along came Saturday's weather. Poor driving conditions resulted in six accidents to make it a black groundhog day for motorists and the men in blue.

● Cars driven by David Edward Boyd of 7 Murdoch St. and Kenneth Boller of Cooksville came together at the Guelph Water St. intersection resulting in $2000 damage. The Boyd car a 1964 Metro was smashed on Guelph when the Boller car a 1966 Ford sped out of Water St. according to a police report. Boller applied the brakes but it was too late.

● Another police report stated that a 1957 Olds driven by George Herbert Arnold of the 6th line of Espous was in collision with a parked car owned by Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Hill of 6th McIntyre Street. The report said the Arnold car was damaged to the tune of $200.

● William Roy Wilson of 26 Queen St. was heading left turn onto St. Lawrence proceeding south when his 1956 Mulford was struck with by a 1960 Chevy driven by John W. Langlois of Brampton. The Stanley car was northbound. Total damage was $225.

● Just before noon Mrs. J. Burns and daughter Colleen, age 6, of R.R. 1, Georgetown suffered minor injuries when the 1960 Plymouth Mrs. Burns was driving west on Maple Avenue went into a spin, broke off a mail box and hit a cement post. Police placed damage on this one at $800 to the car and $50 to the mail box and post.

● James Albert Chimes of 7 Norton Creek was stopping on McNabb St. at Queen St. when his car hit an icy patch and shot into the path of a car driven by Marshall Lloyd Whithery of 10 Guelph St. which was north bound on Queen St. Each car suffered $1500 in damage in the resulting collision.

● Sources of Power To supply the electrical requirements of homes, farms and industry, Ontario Hydro was operating 20 generating stations throughout the province with power systems in 1963.

Preston, Wallace are Glen Churchwardens

The Home and School Association executive met last Monday evening in the school. Mrs. J. Hunter, the president, chaired the meeting. Many items of business were dealt with and plans were made for a euchre party to be held on March 14. The next general meeting will be held May 14th.

The Secretary for this group is Mrs. R. Reynolds and the Treasurer, Mrs. L. Smith.

Get-well wishes are sent to Albert Presswood, who is a patient at Georgetown and District Hospital.

The H.C. group of the United Church met on Sunday night with the H.C.s of Norway in Norway United Church.

The Annual Vestry Meeting of St. Alban's Anglican Church took place last Tuesday evening in the Parish Hall with Rev. R. Stubley in the chair. Bill Korzaek was the Secretary. The financial report of the church was given by Eric Wallace, the People's Wardens. They had a very successful year and the report was encouraging. The wardens and the vestry clerk will carry on as they were, namely: Rector's Warden, Herb Preston Jr.; People's Warden, Eric Wallace; Envelope Secretary, Mrs. Bill Korzaek; Vestry Clerk, Bill Korzaek.

The Ladies Guild financial report was given by the past president, Mrs. M. Bond. Their report was most encouraging and they had given a large contribution to the church. Eric Wallace expressed the appreciation of the congregation to Rev. Stubley, organist Mrs. R. Williams, the Guild, choir leader Mr. C. Crimes, and all the church members for their untiring help during the past year. Plans were discussed for a Bake Sale to be held by the ladies on Shrove Tuesday and also a parish supper.

Eric Wallace volunteered to take charge of the Sunday school. This meets while the Sunday morning service is taking place. Lunch served by the Ladies Guild brought a very profitable evening in a close knit group.

Admitted to Session Under a motion by Mr. William Cronin, seconded by Mr. Robert Lane, Mr. William George an ordained Elder of the Presbyterian Church was admitted to the Session of Knox Church.

Under a motion by Mr. Robert Lane, seconded by Mr. A. F.
