OUR OUTDOORS ARMY OF COLD WEATHER HEROES ARE STILL GOING STRONG

WHEN THE MERCURY goes into a nosedive not everybody can adjust the oil thermostat or open the heat register into the assembly room. A weather bureau report says that this is the coldest winter in 63 years, and aging old men winter nose to nose without flinching is a local "army" of cold weather heroes whose work demands that they carry on even through record setting cold snaps. Hydro and telephone linemen, mailmen, town workmen, delivery boys, contact men, gas pumpers, and many others, have this winter taken every cold snap in winter's bag of tricks square between the eyes and are still going strong. To them a nip of the fur, a gear and an Oscar for duty beyond the call — but with one condition — When the July sun transforms this parallel into a veritable heaven for sol-worshippers, have a thought for the indoor types who their saturated linen and faulty or non-existent second covering

Les Jackson Will Start Taxi Business

A Keats Ave. resident, Lester Jackson, informed Council Monday that he intends to start a taxi business. Asking council permission, he was told by Mayor Hyde that, while it has been customary for such requests to come before council, there is no legislation requiring this. An applicant has merely to comply with insurance and other regulations and procure his licence from the town clerk.
