Town to Annex Esqueing Land

Originally planning to seek annexation of a 162 acre tract of Esqueing land on which part of Smith & Stone plant and Meadswater Growers land is situated, Georgetown council on Monday decided to increase this to 45 1/2 acres. Planning chairman, Jim Young said council must look to the future and the property would provide a good industrial parcel which should be saved for future industrial expansion.

CARD OF THANKS - I would like to thank Dr. C. V. Williams, Dr. J. W. Chamberlain and Dr. A. Macintosh, neighbors and friends for their kindness at the time of my sudden illness. - Mrs. Florence Slacy.

St. Paul's Anglican Names New Wardens

The Annual Vestry Meeting of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Norval, was held on the evening of January 25th with the Rev. Stubby as chairman. Despite the bitter cold weather there was a good attendance. Mr. Ross Norton was appointed Vestry Clerk. The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved. Mrs. F. Bolton gave the treasurer's report. Receipts for the year showed an increase but great part of parish expenses left a deficit. The Apportionment to the Diocese was paid in full. The president of the Guild, Mrs. A. Norton, said they had a good financial year with a balance on hand. The rector reported that the attendance and donations have continued to grow. He expressed a desire to come to the fall festival in Norval. They have been warmly received by the congregation and many are now active in the church. He announced Mr. Ross Norton as his Warden for 1963. In closing he thanked the vestry, Warden, Messrs. Carter and Buckward for their services. The People's Warden, Mr. O. Carter, spoke on the improvements made to the Church and Parish Hall during the year. This work was done under the direction of Mr. Sam White with the financial support of the Guild. A beautiful organ was purchased by the church. He then thanked Mrs. Hinton for her work as treasurer.

The elections and appointments followed. Rector's Warden: R. Johnson, People's Warden: F. Fendley; Lay Delegates: R. Simon, Sub-treasurer: R. Norton, Treasurer: R. Norton; Chairman of Sidesmen: L. Francis; Auditors: H. Smellie, C. McCauley; Advisory Council: R. Johnson, F. Fendley, R. Simon, R. Norton, L. Francis, H. Smellie, C. McCauley; Mrs. A. Norton, Mrs. Wm. Finnermore, O. Carter, A. Burton, H. Dewhurst, F. Howard, A. Shepherd, W. Kirkwood. The Sunday School appointments were made by the Rev. Stubby. Superintendent, Mrs. F. Hutton; Treasurer, Mrs. A. Burton; Junior Choir, Mrs. F. Hutton. The rector closed the meeting with prayer. Luncheon was served by the Ladies' Guild.

Rotary Polls Members Once Superintendent On Topical Questions Dayfoot Shoe Co.

An interesting and entertaining survey was taken at the local Rotary Club meeting this week, which may reflect opinion elsewhere. In an effort to get the honest opinion of the members the questions were asked on a secret ballot. The questions and results are listed below: • How will you vote in the upcoming election - 50% Conservative; 50% Liberal. • Are you in favour of nuclear arms? - 2 to 1 in favour. • Do you favour some form of Medicare? - Three to one in favour. • Do you think a good portion of the unemployed are lazy and don't want to work? Answer: Majority said yes. • Should we retain the C.B.C. - Four to one in favour. • Is there too much USA control of Canadian industry? - 2 to 1 said yes. • Should we recognize Communist China? - 5 to 1 in favour. • Are school uniforms a good idea? - 2 to 1 in favour. • Do you think there is evidence of increased corruption in politics? Answer: 4 to 1 voted yes. • Which do you think more important, finding a cure for cancer, or putting a man on the moon? - 100% said curing cancer.

Plant superintendent at Dayfoot Shoe Co. when he lived in town some years ago, Arthur Betke, 68, died in the Kitchener-Waterloo hospital on February 12th. Mr. Betke came to town when the late Ed Johnston purchased the Dayfoot business which was located on John Street which now houses the Gilmore Rental Service. He worked at the Savage Shoe plant in Preston. Leaves Three Sons - A resident of Kitchener, he was a member of St. John's Anglican Church. He was born in Elmira, son of John and Sarah Water Betke. He leaves his wife, Nora, his three sons, Robert and Jack of Preston and William of Kitchener, and his daughters, Mrs. Fred, Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Preston and Mrs. Jack. Betke was a grandfather of Rev. J. R. Hodge who conducted the funeral service on Thursday at the St. Peter's Sadrack Memorial Home in Kitchener. Interment was in Memory Gardens.
