

Everything Indicates It.....

THIS IS TO BE NEW TOWN HALL??

THE IMPRESSIVE BUILDING at the corner of Water and Mill Streets to be vacated by the post office and various and excise offices in March will in all probability become the new home of the municipal offices and council chambers. Council has shown an interest in the twenty-five year old building and it is no secret that the general public would like to see the structure sold to a buyer who would maintain the condition of the building and grounds. The town has the inside track when it comes to bidding and rumour has it they will take advantage of it and seek to make the purchase shortly after the federal departments move into the new quarters on Maple Ave.

NORVAL

Varied Activities Mark Norval Scout, Guide Week

Norval Scouts, Cubs, Guides and Brownies celebrated the birthday of Lord and Lady Baden Powell the founders of Scouting and Guiding by special "Thinking Day" ceremonies to help all groups to think about their laws and promises and other Scout and Guide groups throughout the world.

The collection from one of their recent meetings was donated to the "World Friendship Fund" and they had a special display in Kirkwood's Hardware Store window for the week.

On Friday evening, Feb. 22 a successful "Family Night" was held in the Parish Hall with Mr. Keith Webb as chairman.

The program opened by singing "O Canada". The Brownies held an enrichment program for 13 new Brownies and badges were presented. 4 Golden Hand 2 Golden Bar, also House Orders, Toy Makers and Writers badges to Brownies who have passed their tests. The Brownies presented Mrs. R. McKenzie with a gift for her assistance at their meetings recently and they also presented $100.00 to the Guide Captain towards the Camp tent fund in place of their usual Christmas project.

The Cubs put on a magic dance and an Hawaiian musical play. The Grand Howl. They also presented a gift to the Scoutmaster in a presentation of a book. The Scouts presented a gift to the Scoutmaster in a presentation of a book. The Scouts presented a gift to the Scoutmaster in a presentation of a book.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY MEMBERSHIP IS 176

The Georgetown & District Fisher Public Relations & Memorial Hospital Auxiliary Publicity report was read by Mrs. G. B. Sampson. The chairman of the nominating committee, Mrs. J. B. Manahan read her report and presented the slate of officers. Mrs. Manahan then introduced Mr. Lloyd Whelan, minister of the First Baptist Church who presented the Georgetown Memorial Hospital Auxiliary's report for 1962-63. Mr. Whelan presided over the election of officers who were elected as follows:

President: Mrs. W. Pope, 1st Vice: Mrs. A. W. K. W. 2nd Vice: Mrs. J. B. Manahan, Treasurer: Mrs. S. Newstead, Secretary: Mrs. E. Bodnar, Treasurer: Mrs. S. Manahan, Minister of the First Baptist Church: Mr. Lloyd Whelan.

The new executive took their pledge and the following pledge was read to the members: "The success of any organization depends not only upon efficient leaders but also upon faithful and devoted followers. Will you pledge to those you elect officers the loyalty and cooperation that a good member can give in a cause in which she believes? Will you all work together to carry out the aims and objects for which the Auxiliary was organized?"

Mrs. J. Manahan read the annual report of the Auxiliary good wishes for the success of the Auxiliary's work during the coming year.

The 1963 Shop-treasurers report was read by Mrs. Ruth Manahan. Mrs. Manahan thanked Mr. Whelan for his assistance at the meeting.

Supply Teachers are Valued in Schools

When Jeanne or Johnnie has been away from school sick we all wish notes to the teacher, but what happens when the teacher herself is sick?

Well, thanks to a number of supply teachers, classes go right on. The majority of these women, all qualified teachers, have homes and children of their own to look after but at a moment's notice, they readily be counted on to fill the teacher's vacant chair.

NONE CLOSED DOWN

Known as casual supply teachers, most can teach any grade, but are usually called to fill a grade they prefer. Inductive of the instant response of these supply teachers is the fact no class has ever closed down.

The women called upon by the Georgetown Public School Board are: Miss Laura Campbell, a retired English teacher; Mrs. Walter Feller, Mrs. Esther Black, Mrs. Bobina Lewis, Mrs. Ethel McLane, Mrs. Alice Walters, Mrs. Ruth Wright, Mrs. Margaret Wilson and Mrs. Marjorie Gornall.

Home Instruction

In addition to filling in at the schools in time of need, Mrs. Mary Gornall gives home instruction to children who are suffering lengthy illness. By this system most children can keep up with their class mates.

The Lions Den

BY SAM MELTZER

March, March, March the month of old-fashioned germs and new fangled drugs, when the air is rent with explosive sneezes, guttural coughs and raspy throat clearing. However, one lady who is a nurse at the Georgetown Memorial Hospital has this month's prize from the 200 Club Draw to brighten up the month for her. Mrs. Lorraine Stephens of McIntyre Cresc. was the lucky winner. And we congratulate you, nurse. Scouter's, Darlene, Bartelger and Ken Ryder were present at the meeting to receive the number one trophy for the By Scouts, who had the best float in the Xmas parade. The Chamber of Commerce Shield was presented to John Harding for the Builders Association; the John K. Barber shield was collected by Gob. Collier for the Legion. The best commercial float was won by United Gas and District Manager Jim Robertson was on hand to accept from the Georgetown Herald and with a fine after dinner speech.

There was a lot of respect when District Governor Graydon Clipperton stood up to speak - it made us all stop and examine our operation and to take a mature look at our organizing and programming. It was a memorable evening topped by the District Governor presenting the Best Band Trophy to our local girls pipe band... and you should have all seen the priceless look of ecstasy on Lion Scotty Herkes' face when the girls gave us a tune on the pipes.

There is a heartwarming story from Iran this week. Late one night in northern Iran, the ground shuddered and throughout a 1,500 square mile area mud brick huts began to tumble on their occupants. More than 10,000 people were killed and thousands rendered homeless. In one village alone, Damsfahan, three quarters of the 4,500 population was wiped out.

Offers of assistance quickly came from Lions throughout the world.

Thousands of miles from the disaster area all around the world Lions Clubs phoned or telegraphed the International office to ask how they could help.

As soon as the funds were received from the club the International President appointed a prominent Lion in the disaster area to distribute the aid. He in turn, sends an acknowledgment to each club who made a contribution. This procedure takes advantage of the local Lions on the spot, knowledge of local needs and also makes it possible for the funds to have a greater remedial impact. Much of the money was in small amounts but gathered together it was a potent answer to a dire need. It was also proof once again that world wide Lionism, which unifies the energies and efforts of thousands of men, is a mighty force for good.

Well indeed it's not such a sad heart world after all there's a silver lining if you only look for it. As I said to the hardpressed subdivisioner when he wrote...

The saddest words of tongue or pen We just sold Jimmie's buggy then...

County Council Briefs

With no debate at all, Halton County Council last week locked an Agriculture Committee recommendation that County Council support the Cream Producers' motion that margarine will not be coloured to resemble butter.

COUNCIL ALSO decided to consider an Open Deer Season in Halton in 1963 providing neighbouring counties also do the same. An attempt will be made to come to an agreement with Peel County.

THE COUNTY ROAD Committee recommended that a by-law be prepared reducing the speed limit through the Village of Stewartstown from 30 m.p.h. to 25 m.p.h.

A DEVELOPMENT ROAD from Millroy Heights to Comely Road 10 to the 16 Mile Creek Conservation authority may be built in Nassarawaga. The County will be responsible for the "right-of-way" but the cost of sharing.

ROBERT A. EDMUNDS was appointed Assistant to the County Engineer at a Salary of $7,200. At present he is Assistant to the County Engineer in Peterborough.
