

PINEVIEW WILL MEAN THE LAST OF THE 'LITTLE RED SCHOOLS'

This is the last class to be taught in Pineview one room school south of Norval, one of the four Esquimaux school houses which will close their doors for good at the end of this term. The schools Pineview, Hornby, Ligny and Quesnel, are the last remaining 'Speyside and Milton Heights' holdouts. Standing at the back of the class at left is their teacher, Mrs. J. Lawson. Below are some of the ghost schools left empty by the changing system of education for so many district residents.

STONE SCHOOL, on No. 7 Hwy. closed its doors 5 years ago.

BLUE MOUNTAIN, near Ballinacree, heard the laughter of school children for the last time in June, 1962.

GIBRALTAR, on the 5th Line north of Limhouse, became obsolete at the end of the term.

Raiders Even Welland Series Seek Tie-Breaker At Home Friday

If there is any justice in Welland uniforms hit Georgetown Raiders the knee and dropped at the end of the first period. Without looking at the netting game here Friday night in the largest of the district playoffs series with Welland super slapper a defenseman with a snout and the general direction of the puck down with a snout and be in front of a crowd of 1000. It should be an opening in the net for the Raiders' wingers, but they accounted for the fourth goal from center at the top corner of the net. Raiders set the stage for marker. Raiders were seen to Tuesday night by completely in front of the Merchants' outplaying the Merchants and not with four minutes to go out thumping them, to even in the period. The puck came the best of seven series at a back to Vasey and the sticky game apiece Welland bombed defence player bunched a slap Georgetown 102 in the open shot that cleared Vasey's er Friday on Welland ice. The right shoulder of Vasey scored here was 81.

The story of the complete Welland started to whittle reversal was solid defense the margin early in the third work from Barry Smith out period Robinson to a patient and aggressive forechecking line and let go a shot that Smith was a human pretzel, Smith had to make a diving paying belated homage to Bay save on Miller backhanded the Scout Week by tying himself loose into the space of in every required knot to catch with just 40 seconds left his blade of merit for flexing. Prior to the Welland score 1-1 because of the reluctance Galand and Richardson were of his defenders Wally Magdy luth foiled on clean outsize Gar Vasey, Gord Thompson and the chances.

Led Max's chants' shots were from over that Gar Vasey has one of the 20 feet out but when he was hurried shots in the second alone at the mercy of a swoop Junior Beaumont had a shot 1-2 greenshirt he persistently the puck into the corner to the outgassed his man and it was right of the Welland net as these barefaced (Smith doesn't we's being checked by Under wear a mask) rubberies that and Mavorita. His content took the spirit out of the Mer pass in Demerse was reflected chants and drew the plaudits to Vasey at the bludline and of the comparatively small but nosy crowd.

The pace was fast, and the effects of the bumpathon on its started to show late in the third period when checking got less and less clean and blood temperatures approach ed the 212 degree point. With less than ten minutes to go ation director, Sandy Best of Woodhall collared Don Fleming, Georgetown, was elected President on the boards and pounded dent. Dr. Best has served on the fleet winger twice on the Government Advisory Board back of the head before Fle. P. His content took the spirit out of the Mer pass in Demerse was reflected chants and drew the plaudits to Vasey at the bludline and of the comparatively small but nosy crowd.

Georgetown led 1-0 at the end of the first period and 4-0 at the end of the second. Gerry Inglis, shifted to a forward line with Junior Beaumont and Bob Demerse, had the best scoring chance of the first period, but just faded back in. He was sent into the car at the Welland bludline, skated right in on Atchison but missed the bottom left corner with his shot. Moments later Raiders did burst into lead Gord Thompson made the rush from his own zone and away a blistering shot that knocked Atchison flat. Richardson made a dash for the bound and flipped it over the sprawled goalie.

It was the same type of play that opened the second period scoring and it was the same opportunity who completed it. With just over four minutes left, Wayne Thompson dove in on Atchison from the right boards, slammed a shot into the feet and breezed by Richardson was trailing him, the Welland puckeater didn't have a chance.

Two three came just two minutes later. A wild shot by Don Fleming into a maze of
