Flower Arranging Special Feature for Church Ladies

Flower arranging was the special feature of the UCW of the United Church last Monday evening. Twenty ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. W. Everson for the March meeting. Mrs. F. Engley was in the chair and the meeting opened with call to worship and the singing of hymn "I Love To Tell the Story," followed by prayer. The roll call was answered by a favourite Irish song, "Minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. J. Wagstaffe.

The devotional was taken up by Mrs. Paul Wagstaffe. The really finds life in service to God, and man."

A report on the mental leprosy tea, which raised about $35.00, was given, also a report on the catering the previous week. It was decided to have a rummage sale in May. Plans were made for a St. Patrick's Tea and Bake Sale, next Saturday, March 16th, in the church. Then came the social hour when all watched Mrs. R. Harris of Harris Florist, arranged a dining room table centrepiece, make an arrangement for a baby and a corsage.

The centrepiece of green Apple Products, the ladies had tinted carnations was given to a surprise party for their Mrs. P. Wagstaffe, Sr., whose birthday was the nearest to being her birthday, they presented the Mrs. A. Everitt with a gift to her from the children's arrangement for group and a birthday cake, for her daughter, Sherry. Mrs. O. Curated for the occasion, was five Wildo received the corsage enjoyed with their coffee.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hancock on the birth of a daughter last week.

Liberals Rally For Dr. Harry Harley

Some fifty Georgetown Liberals gathered in the beautiful recreation room at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harrison last Thursday evening to finalize plans for the federal campaign in Georgetown.

President Garfield McGillivray chaired the meeting and outlined what had already been accomplished and laid plans for furthering the campaign to re-elect Dr. Harry Harley.

The candidate was present and stressed the theme of the election was to restore stable government to Canada, and that only a Liberal government could bring this about.

He said a vote for the splinter parties was only a vote for the same Dielenbaker indecisions. Also present were the county Liberal president, Perry Nelson of Oakville and Bob Blake, campaign organizer.

All present offered their services in any way possible to assure the election of Dr. Harley.

A Liberal committee room will be set up on Main Street this week-end.

A number of coffee parties have been set up and local Liberals predict no change from the June election of last year.

Would Deny Businesses In Residential Areas

Georgetown Planning Board has recommended to council an additional clause to the zoning by-law which would prohibit many businesses which can presently be operated from residential areas.

But at least one councillor, Douglas Stephens expressed, thanks to Mr. Scarborough on behalf of the pack.

question and answer period which concluded the demonstration.

Discriminating and far too "value," was his comment when the planning board letter was read Monday to council.

The suggested change would allow household arts as long as there is no outside storage of materials. But it would specifically ban barbering, hairdressing, real estate, insurance offices, pet and plants for sale and general repair businesses in residential zones.

Ambulance Chief Gives First Aid Demonstration

Last Thursday evening at their regular meeting, First Aid demonstration was given by Dan Scarborough, Chief of the Georgetown Volunteer Ambulance Service.

Mr. Scarborough demonstrated artificial respiration, then had the Cub practice it. Arm slings, triangular, large and small, were practiced. In an emergency the Cub's necktie can be used for the triangular bandage. Hints for first aid on hikes, blisters, burns from camp fires, insect
