

ONE OF THE FATED 12 'BOUGHS OUT'

Below Tony Martin of Norval's Sodding dismembers a huge limb from a stately maple tree that complemented the Knox Presbyterian Church landscape at the Main and Church Street corner for a century. The many-boughed maple was one of twelve of the town's arbors which were slated for the axe because of disease and old age.

At left Tony Martin and one of his workmen examine the rotted core of the felled maple. Though many of the topped trees appeared healthy before going under the power saw the black pulpy centres of the logs bare out the tree expert's diagnosis. Trees bordering Main St. south and north of Church Street disappeared during removal work last week.

Norval is Two Ahead In Industrial Finals

If there is one glaring fault with the Norval Industrial hockey team it's their aggravating habit of leaving nothing for the second guessers to quibble over.

With two games of Georgetown Industrial Hockey League 1963 finals already history, the Norvals have a 2-0 edge in games over Oakville, and they took both by decisive scores. The opener was 5-1 in Norval's favour and Sunday they bombed Oakville with an even heavier shelling, 8-1.

Norval scored twice in the first and three times in both the second and third. The opening Main St. south and north of Church Street disappeared during removal work last week.

JAMIE CUNNINGHAM

The teams battled scoreless until the ten minute mark when Ross Cunningham pumped home the first goal from Ron McLean and Nick Ferri. Jamie Cunningham from Kent Biddall made a 2-0 before Oakville retaliated. McKay finding the range from Bamber.

The second period was just over four minutes old when George Watson scored Norval's third from Ferri and Jim Richardson. That was it until with three minutes left in the period, Ron McLean steered a Ross Cunningham's pass. Jamie Cunningham followed right on the heels of that one from McLean and Biddall and the session ended 5-1.

Norval's final convey of goals came in rapid succession near the end of the game. McLean from Jamie Cunningham and Peter Bradkin. Fred Harrison unassisted and Ross Cunningham from Ron McLean did the damage.

Game three goes Sunday at 1 o'clock sharp.

Tykes Hockey

Red Asseltine

The scoreboard read one minute and 58 seconds to go then from a scramble in front of the net, a screened shot slid past the Georgetown goalie.

From the face-off Georgetown carried into the Clifffest end, pulled the goalie and although putting on terrific pressure, just couldn't buy a goal to tie it up.

Although losing the game 1-0, the applause from the crowd, and announcement over the P.A. of the wonderful display of skating skill and hockey know-how of the Georgetown team gave one a wonderful feeling in knowing that Georgetown had once again left behind them a name to be remembered in hockey circles.

Every player was terrific and gave it everything he had. Young Ray Peacock played an outstanding game in the net and robbed Clifffest players time and again on clear-cut breakaways.

Congratulations to Junior Beaumont and Bob LeBlanc who have spent so much time with the boys this season. Many Georgetown parents' chests were puffed proud in Scarborough arena and we thank them for their wonderful support.

All Tyke hockey is now finished for the season and we hope the boys all enjoyed their year in Canada's favourite sport. I would also like to thank Stan Hegstrom, Shel Lawr, Ted Finlay and Paul Robinson for their devoted time and help in this past season.

The Tyke Party will be held approximately the first week of May and we hope everyone will watch this paper closely for the announcement.

Once again, many thanks to Friday in Robert Little School, everyone. See you all next season.

Oakville Cracks Down On Election Posters

Election campaign posters are coming down as fast as they go up in the south of the county — but it's not the work of vandals or mischievous supporters of rival candidates.

W. W. Bateman, the supervisor of Oakville Parks Board, has instigated the war against what he calls illegal election posters — those that are heavily scattered throughout the town's parks.

Mr. Bateman started his poster removal campaign last week and today declared that his staff's determination to stop illegal posting of election posters in the town's green areas successful.

During the past week hundreds of placards were nailed to trees and park buildings. The offense carries a maximum fine of $300 on conviction.

Mr. Bateman said about 40 posters had been taken down to date and a recent inspection shows they have not been replaced.

Last week the Parks Board sent a notice concerning the by-law to each candidate. Since the notices were mailed there have been no new postings.

New Commissioner in Chair for Guiders

On March 25th at the home of Mrs. Robert Freeman, 84 Duncan Drive, the monthly Guiding Meeting was held. The following Guiders were present, Mrs. P. Hill, Mrs. I. Riley, Mrs. McNally, and Mrs. Rhea Robert Freeman, Mrs. B. White, Mrs. Green, (Hazel), Capt. Mrs. Guthrie, Miss Conlin, Miss South, Mrs. Jim York, Miss Carol Lane, Mrs. B. Barry.

The meeting was chaired by the new commissioner, Mrs. York. The meeting closed with Taps. Some 25 Guiders are presently taking training at the United Church in Norval. This qualifies Guiders for a warrant pin.

On Thursday April 4th at 7 o'clock at Holy Cross School the 8th and 9th Georgetown Brownies are holding a joint fly-up to the 5th Guide Company. Mary Frost flies up from the 8th Park, Len Freeman and Ellen Yates fly up from the 9th Park. We wish them good luck in Guiding. Well done.

Oakville Police Chief Fred Oliver has offered to lend his war on illegal posting his full support.

The action followed vigorous complaints by residents who said campaign teams were defacing and intruding on public property.

The Public Utilities chairman Gordon Lever said the PUC had issued warnings in the past but threats had no effect.

"What's the use," he said. "They will only go ahead and put them up anyway."

Motorcycle officers are now out in last week's Herald correctly placed the drivers and proceeding in wrong directions.
