Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Hunter R.R. 2, Georgetown, have returned home after a pleasant holiday in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. William McNally, 22 Market St., returned on Saturday from a motor trip south. They stayed at Treasure Island near St. Petersburg, Florida, and en route home stopped at the Smithsonian Institute to see space capsule in which astronaut John Glenn orbited the earth, and spent a few days at Williamsburg, Va.

Charles Dickenson, who with his late parents, operated the present Gowlett's store for many years, is back in town for a few weeks. Mr. Dickenson went to Vancouver after selling the business and has been living there with his sister, Mrs. Ivy Giffen of Hamilton. Mrs. Dickenson has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. Wm. J. Hyde, and family at 18 Queen Street for the past month.

Same Model, Wrong Car, Embarrassing for Lady

Even police work has its lighter side, and an embarrassing ball-up had the department in chuckles Monday.

It all started when Mrs. D. Corbett, 12 Prince Charles Dr. left her work at the Magistrate's Office on Main St. South to discover her car, a 1954 Chev, which she had parked on the opposite side of the street at 1 o'clock, had disappeared.

Police were notified of the theft of course and the search was on.

It was over in moments. The car was located at the Delrex Plaza and so was the driver, a woman, with a good explanation.

Seems she had left her car at a garage for repairs and the service station had loaned her a car much like Mrs. Corbett's, while her own was being fixed. She drove downtown to shop and not being familiar with the courteous car, mistook Mrs. Corbett's Chev for the one she had borrowed when her business downtown was completed and drove off to the plaza in the wrong car.

ENGAGEMENTS

The engagement is announced of Margaret Geraldine Saunders, daughter of Mrs. M. G. Saunders of Morin Heights, Quebec, to Leonard Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Taylor, 2 Cleavholm Drive, Georgetown. The marriage to take place on Saturday, April 6th, at 4:30 in the afternoon, in Knox Presbyterian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Milne of Sudbury, announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Jeanne Milne to Robert James Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hill, 10 McNabb Street, Georgetown. The wedding to take place April 13th in Knox Presbyterian Church, Sudbury, at 3 p.m.
