NORVAL CAPTURES INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE CROWN

THE NORVAL INDUSTRIAL hockey team has taken the shortest possible route to the Georgetown Industrial League Championship... They finished it up Sunday afternoon... In the front row (kneeling) are: Paul Barber, George Watson, Fred Harrison, Norm Lockhart, Kent Riddell, Dave Cunningham, Jamie Cunningham, (back) Barry Richardson (stick boy), Bill Richardson, Nick Ferri, Pete Bradkin, Jim Richardson, Ken Hearnes, Terry Brusni, Ron McLean, George Grasby, Ross Cunningham, Earl McPherson, (league president) and Billy Cunningham (water boy).

Midgets Lead 2 to 1 In Ontario Playdowns

Georgetown Midgets may be assisted and Jim Blair from the Ontario champions today... Everything hinged on last night's game, the fourth in the best of five final which Georgetown led at writing time two games to one... But whether the series is over or not, the Georgetown Midgets have already won one battle — they've captured the imagination of Georgetown's blase hockey followers in no uncertain terms...

ROD PRESSWOOD

Friday night close to 900 paying customers filed into the rink and watched the black and gold swarm all around the Orillia net in the first period and maintain a definite territorial edge throughout... Monday night in game 11, Georgetown counted a pair of goals within seconds of each other late in the third period to break up a tight hockey game and wrestle the series lead away from the Bulldogs with a 5-3 win...

Novices Enter Brampton Easter Hockey Tourney Georgetown Novices engaged Galt in an exhibition game in Georgetown Memorial Arena on Thursday and, in a rather scrappy game, came out with a 4-1 win... Grady Hillock put Georgetown 1 up with his goal in the closing minutes of the 1st period... A goal by Sloan from Jacobs at 4:31 of the second period evened the score, but not was through the period. Lewelyn from Foster and Ingstrup Georgetown ahead again 2-1...
