Present Fire Prevention Awards at Milton Dinner

Awards for exceptional fire fighters for their work in 1962 were presented by the fire departments and fire prevention bureaus at a dinner at the Milton Fire Hall. The dinner was held on Saturday, April 13, at the annual banquet of the County's Fire Prevention Bureau. The awards were presented to the following: Chief Douglas Wilson, Milton Fire Department; Chief A. E. Clement, Milton Fire Department; Chief J. H. Smith, Milton Fire Department; Chief J. H. Smith, Milton Fire Department; Chief J. H. Smith, Milton Fire Department.

Ballinafad Institute Elects 1963 Officers

Ballinafad W.I. held its April meeting on Wednesday in the new community centre. As this was the annual meeting, it commenced with a potluck luncheon at one o'clock with 17 members at the table. The president, Mrs. J. Jamieson, called the meeting to order and after the Ode and Collect the minutes of the last meeting were read and the roll called. Several items of business were discussed. The annual report of the committee was read and approved. Mrs. J. Jamieson presented the award for the best paper in the class of the Milton Fire Department. The award was presented to Mrs. J. Jamieson.

Smith Boosts Action For Second Town Park

One plank in Cr. Bill Smith's election program this year was addition of recreation facilities in the eastern ward which he represents. On Thursday April 11th, the new councilman hopes to start on his plan. He has called a 7 p.m. meeting in the council chambers and hopes to form a "fact finding and fund raising committee" which will initiate action which could lead to his goal.

"We can't do it all at once but I hope to see it started for Georgetown's 1964 centennial year," he told council Monday. "Certainly I can't see the town treasury footing the bill at present, but with individual business and industry co-operating, surely we can do

Ton n Retains Crown Still Bowling Champ

Dino Tonin of Guelph retained his "Beal the Champ" crown at Georgetown Bowling Club last week. He fought off the challenge of Eric Whittaker and Rupert Enthammer, winning with a three game score of 839. Whittaker bowled 788 and Enthammer 683. If Dino Tonin can hold his championship Sunday, April 21, he will share with Art Da-Whittaker the distinction of being the most durable champion, having successfully defended his title twice. Sylvia Duda held the championship for two weeks. Harry Brandford and Stan Mitchell were unable to defend their title. High single was rolled by Lou Brandford with a score of 340. High lady of the night was Hazel Tonin with a three game score of 683 (223, 162, and 298).
