Harley Ahead

In Service Vote

Dr. Harry C. Harley of Oakville who was returned as Halton's Liberal M.P. in the April 8th election, added more votes to his victory when the results of Halton's armed services voting was announced.

Accident Again on Stewarttown Hill

A car and a telephone pole have come together again on Stewarttown Hill, scene of three recent fatalities.

Returning Officer for Halton

Richard West, said minor changes had been made this past week in the municipal totals that were unofficially announced on election night.

With the service vote included

Harley now has 25,423 votes; Best 15,939; Fullerton 6,849; Timmins 489; and Wilson 330. There were 391 ballots spoiled or rejected.

Evening of Fun For Chi Rho Group

Business was brief and fun prevailed when members of the Chi Rho Fellowship of St. George's Anglican Church held their post-Lenten meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Pantling.

Members listened to recordings had a sing-song and ended the evening with dancing, followed by lunch.

The driver and passengers escaped with minor injuries. The accident occurred at about 12:15 a.m. and was investigated by the O.P.P.

A coroner's jury recently recommended warning signs at the approach to the hill.
