ADVERTISE IN THE HERALD

BIRTHS

TAYLOR — Mr. and Mrs. Allan Taylor (nee Pearl Morris) are happy to announce the arrival of Constance Kay (Conny), a sister for George and Jimmy, on April 21st 1963, at Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton.

WARD — Cathy and Doug Ward are proud to announce the birth of a son, Brian Stuart, 7 lbs., 11.2 oz., on April 22nd, 1963 at Georgetown & District Memorial Hospital. A brother for Teresa.

MEMORIALS

CORBETT — In loving memory of James Robert Corbett, who died May 1st, 1958. Love's last gift, remembrance. —Ever remembered by wife Doris and children Susan and Robby.

ELLISON — In loving memory of my dear brother, William Donald Ellison, who passed away May 6th, 1961. We do not need a special day for the days we do not think of you. Are very hard to find. If all this world were ours to give, We'd give it, yes, and more. To see your face, dear Don. Come smiling through the door. —Lovingly remembered by brother Alex., sister-in-law Myrel, Patsy and Marg.

ELLISON — In loving memory of a dear brother and uncle, William Donald Ellison, who passed away two years ago, May 6th, 1961. Beside your grave we often stand And shed a silent tear, With heart both crushed and sore. Loving and kind in all his ways Upright and just in all his days. Sincere and true in heart and mind. Beautiful memories he left behind. —Always remembered by sister Lydia, brother-in-law Bob and girls.

ELLISON — In loving memory of my dear brother Don, who passed away May 6th, 1961. You left quietly, your thoughts unknown. But memories you left I'm proud to own. What would I give to clasp your hand And to see you smile. You meant so much to me. Sadly missed by brother Jim.

ELLISON — In loving memory of our dear son William Donald, who passed away May 6th, 1961. We little knew when we woke that morn. The sorrow the day would bring. You are gone but not forgotten Don. As it dawns another year, Thoughts of you are always near. Days of sadness may come and go. But they little know the sorrow That lies within our hearts. Lovingly remembered by Mother and Dad.

FORD — In loving memory of Cecil Ford who passed away May 2nd, 1961. I lost a husband with a heart of gold, Who was more to me than wealth untold. Without farewell, he fell asleep. With only memories for me to keep. He was a husband so very rare. Content in his home, and always there. I treasure with love sincere. Beautiful memories of one so dear. Lovingly remembered by his wife, Louise.

Businesswomen are Hosts To Clubs from District 4

The Business and Professional Women's Club were hosts to Region Four on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Arthur Scott. Participating clubs were Brampton, Markham-Unionville, Stouffville, Newmarket and Georgetown. 85 guests were present.

Miss Jean Mackenzie, president of the local club, gave a welcoming address, prior to the serving of a buffet dinner which had been catered to by the local club. Mrs. Lynn Hughes, regional advisor, opened the business portion of the meeting, and asked for a roll call of clubs, the minutes and financial report of the last regional meeting. Mrs. Ruth Avery of Brampton acted as recording secretary. Each president in the Region presented reports of her club's activities during the year. All clubs supported the Ramallah project in Jordan where seven girls are being educated under the sponsorship of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs. All had given aid to Millicent Fraser, an African student attending Western University. Two clubs had conducted "Career Preview" programs and one a leadership training course. Projects, aims and objectives of the Federation had been well supported in the Region.

Mrs. Margaret Ashdown, president of the Ontario Federation, was introduced by Mrs. Aileen Bradley. Mrs. Ashdown spoke on the theme of the regional conference: Reach out and grow. She likened the Federation to a tree with its roots, trunk, branches and leaves and left her listeners with a deep sense of purpose and ambition. Mrs. Myrtle Hall, man of Stouffville expressed the appreciation of the clubs in her.

Miss Noraine Ayers, New Market, presented the nomination for Regional Advisor and Mrs. Lynn Hughes was elected by acclamation. Date and time of the next regional meeting was left to the presidents' meeting for decision. Markham-Unionville and Stouffville will be the next hosts.

Miss Connie McKittrick, Vice-president of District 4, spoke on the forthcoming conference to be held in Toronto and gave several excellent suggestions as to the financing of delegates and observers and their preparations for conference. Mrs. Jean Rundle gave a report on Miss Dorothy Silver, Markham-Unionville, a report of Leadership Training.

The District 4 Dues of all trading new members and holding their interest was ably taken care of by the Markham-Unionville and Stouffville Clubs. The dues were humorously handled and far fetched, but with some semblance of truth, while the dues were serious and quite helpful.

All was not work during the evening and everyone enjoyed a solo by Mrs. Vera Macdonald of Glen Williams. Two members of the local club, Mrs. Maureen Walker and Mrs. Jean Rundle made their singing debut in a humorous parody on the club's Mrs. Isabel McMillen of Brampton thanked the hostess and the hostesses for giving the Region such a successful and pleasant evening.

Dr. A. E. Berry's career since graduating from the University of Toronto includes director of the division of sanitary engineering of the provincial health department and general manager and chief engineer of the Ontario Water Resources Commission since its inception in 1957.

On Thursday a testimonial dinner at the Royal York Hotel honoured him prior to his retirement. And a lengthy list of dignitaries who spoke their tribute included Premier John Hobbart, Highway Minister Charles MacNaughton, Mines Minister George Wardrop and A. M. Snider, OWRC chairman.

It was under Dr. Berry's direction that Georgetown's new sewage treatment plant was constructed and he visited town when the plant was officially opened.

Thieves who have been committing hit and run thefts at nurseries in the south of the county won't be as successful if they make an attempt on Sheridan Nurseries near Glen Williams.

Joe Pokluda of Sheridan Nurseries told The Herald this week that a lot of the multi-million stock has now been freed and nurserymen are making a point of watching shrubs bordering the roads.

Whoever made the raids on the other nurseries is expected to attempt to dispose of the stock door to door.

District Deputy Hosts Staff, Assembly Ladies

Saturday evening Mrs. Alfred Collins, District Deputy of Centre District Rebekah Assembly of Ontario, 102 Guelph Street, was hostess to her installation staff and several past presidents of the Rebekah Assembly of Ontario.

Her guests enjoyed a turkey dinner, catered to by the Past Noble Grand's Club of Verdun Rebekah Lodge. Healthable guests were Mrs. Annie Courtney, Mrs. Isabel Carr, Mrs. Louise Clark, all of Toronto, and Mrs. Meta Priestly of Grimsby. All of these were past presidents, and Mrs. Peggy Wylie and Mrs. Dick Radall, marshal and assistant marshal of the installing staff. Mrs. Lydia Underhill, district deputy of North District was also at the head table.

After dinner Mrs. Collins took her guests upstairs in the 100th Hall where cards were enjoyed during the evening. A delicious luncheon of cookies and coffee completed the happy occasion.

WELCOMED SON

When a son was born to one of India's formerly powerful potentates, he passed out automobiles to his friends rather than cigars.
