LEGION NOTES

by Don. N. Platt

The term "Sack Chairman" eddy hungry, however true to word he kept his eye on the chairman as to what he was doing. His desire for food he on the independent list. Be the same a must. His gastric gurgling party tucked away at times had built up to a crescendo or the occupant of a bus resembling the "William Tell Overture" and he was soon getting a visit from Matt McLean Hailing attempts at grab bites as yet unbroken from Matt's perpetual smile re stuck me doubt to play along commends him highly as with the "William Tell Overture" when the gals returned through fog, sleet, snow and rain to see John and the turkeys his all-encompassing grin truly may suggest that future's with him on his errands of custodians be provided with some appropriate cutlery?

Should Matt's smile be broken by speech the words come out wrapped in an accent that could be nowhere from the Chelsea Docks to Lower Shub ova. He claims the accent stems from an Irish birth, an English grand-mother and a Scot fish hooker.

All kidding aside, no smile or no smile. Matt is a mighty hard worker. His devotion to the job of dispensing refreshments second only to the officers way in which he does it.

A hand on the back of a guarantee that our Branch 120 Officers, Members will be around for the trophies and smiles with them.

John Beaton added another chapter to his duties as president of the Legion on Friday when he became Captain of the Turkeys.

It seems some ladies were in the kitchen preparing a turkey dinner to be partaken of by the group of boxers at a bar.

Our boys did not return enroute that evening. As John was pty handed though Art Hartie who he was requested to find Bob Nicholson brought keep an eye on the grub while back the Doubles trophies and the cooks departed for a short Bob Nicholson did a repeat for the Singles trophy.
