Will House Precision Tool & Die

From a faltering start in the old town hall in 1955, Precision Tool and Die Ltd., will move into a new 5,000 square foot plant on Todd Road around the middle of July. The plant was built by A. Entenier.

In 1960, the Simonyi brothers, owners of Precision Tool, moved into their present quarters

"WONDER WHAT THEY'VE GOT FOR 3c"

IF WISHES WERE LEGAL TENDER this party pop would be a "best dressed man" this Sunday, Father's Day. However, the tatty arms will probably have to be considerably reduced, for lack of funds. It really is the thought that counts, anyway.

High Scores Feature Girls' Softball Games

And there is no better time than the day hours of summer evenings for catching up on all those old favourites we have always been going to read ball, got underway last week.

The novels of Thomas Hardy, Henry James, the poems of Dr. Drummond, Pauline Johnson, the biographies of political leaders, stars of the stage and screen and men and women who have given their lives for the human race and there is no better time than the day hours of summer evenings for catching up on all those old favourites we have always been going to read ball, got underway last week.

Though they won't threaten to sweep the field, the girls showed they are the pick of the players in the competition.

In the Junior Division, the Kintecle Cruisers had a small win over the Delrex Fathers, though Dairy Queen decided the score didn't have a ground shame. Jane McNauly did all on Sunnyside Real Estate, winning the pitching for the winners.

Bev Lashoush also won IT'S A SMALL WORLD one and while her teammates Little Sues was describing the morning's activities to her Beaver Cruiser went down another. "We played 4 times," she said, "but on Saturday, 20 Grand Adelaine's baby sister sister, Barbara, 19, was the flower girl.

Books For All Tastes Available at Library

Two books on this month's life in Nova Scotia sum up the life in Soviet Russia one, "The serial 'Soviet Family'" is an account of the year spent amongst Russian families by Dr and Mrs. Mace. The authors are well known sociologists and their research has produced a picture of family life in Russia today. The other book, "A History of Soviet Literature" covers the work of poets and authors from the time of the Bolshevik Revolution in 1917 to the end of last year. It reveals a great deal of tragedy, of courage, of despair and of faith that has surrounded the creative minds in a country where freedom is restricted.

In lighter vein we offer Thomas Raddall's "The Wings of Night", a novel of contemporary life in our very good travel section

Two Hospitalized Car-Tractor Crash

Two Georgetown people, Evelyn Peddie of 32 Charles St. and Mrs. Edith Kennedy of 23 Tyers Ave. were taken to Georgetown Memorial Hospital for treatment after the car they were riding in collided with a tractor at Nottal Tuesday.

Police said Mrs. Peddie suffered a cut over her right eye and blisters to her left side, and Mrs. Kennedy received knee and back injuries as well as bruises about her chin.

Mrs. Peddie was driving a 1959 Vauxhall sedan when it was in collision with the tractor in 1959 Massy-Harris driven by William Leslie Everett of 35 Main St. Georgetown.

The accident happened at about 7:45 a.m. and was investigated by Sgt. Hatch of the North Halton OPP.
