"At last," said several young Cub Scouts "We now have one eye open Akela made us tie knots with our eyes shut and behind our backs. Also know the life of Baden Powell, Place and Saints backwards plus many other required lests to get the first star."

'C' Pack of First Georgetown Cubs. St. John's United Church held their last regular meeting until September last Tuesday

The meeting opened with the Grand Howl led by Bruce Cartwright. This was followed by games, instructions, and tests under the leadership of Mrs. J. Layman, C.M. and Instructors David Shrubsole and Glen Broomhead.

The Cubs formed a circle around the camp fire for the investiture of Peter Young, lan Long and Douglas Waites, when they made their promise to Akela and received the group neckerchief to the pack. Gordon Nichols, Douglas

Simpkins, Ken Asseltine. Stephen Graham, Ross McConnell, and Charles Vandenberg received their first star. New Chums receiving white neckerchiefs (coat of white paint) were David Holmes and

Brian McDonald. Several songs were sung around the campfire led by David Shrubsole. The meeting closed with the Mouse Howl and a
