The Halton Trap Club placed second a mere single point ahead of Georgetown Anglers and Hunters.

Home Robinson was highest in the Georgetown camp with a 42 score. Don Powers followed with 44. Len Prestigiac and Charlie Hoare clipped 43 birds each, and Bob Haley broke 42.

Hitters Abound in Girls' Softball Group

The new Georgetown girls softball league event's organized by the Kinsmen Service Club is definitely a hitter's league. If there are any doubts, Jackson's Baragan Centre dispensed them last week when in a regularly scheduled game they double-whammed Kanette 31 to 4 in a 4 1/2 inning barrage.

The winners did their best when they racked the Kanettes with 15 runs. The losers could manage only a pair in the third and a pair in the fifth.

Dolores outlasted Beaver 15-8 in the night's second slugfest. Dolores scored at least twice in every inning and had their best inning in the 4th when they collected 6 runs.

Hornby, Glen Williams
Tie For Baseball Lead

Hornby Red Shirts defeated Lowville 11-7 in Halton Rural Softball League play Friday to move into a first place tie with Glen Williams.

Red Shirts scored four times in the eighth inning to take the victory. At the time they were leading Lowville by a 7-6 count.

Lowville had notched a pair of two run innings to threaten their attack. They counted singles in the first, seventh and ninth innings.

Red Shirts went to the win on the impetus of a six run first frame. They scored once in the fifth inning.

Gary Hamilton gained credit for the victory although he tied in the 4th inning and had to be relieved by Jamie Cunningham who pitched brilliantly during the remaining five frames.

Three walks, a single and a bases-loaded home run led to the downfall of the Lowville effort in the first inning. Graham Gilles and Jamie Cunningham drew the free passes. John Willmott loaded the sacks with a single.

Dave Leslie powered a 210 foot shot into centerfield that put the Red Shirts off and running to the share of first place in the league standings.

Art Brooks and Dave Chisholm combined to push Red Shirts first inning lead to 6-1. Brooks drew a walk after Leslie's homer had cleared the paths.

Chisholm promptly followed with the second homer of the inning. Chisholm's blast passed the left field barrier some among the crowd of 150 witnesses and the ball travelled 220 feet.

In the fifth inning, a walk by Art Brooks and a double by Chisholm netted Hornby's seventh run and pushed their lead to 7-5.

In the eighth frame, three doubles and a walk were piled into four runs. Gilles led the frame when he drew a free pass.

Doubles by Willmott, Brooks, and Leslie scored the runs. Lowville closed out scoring with a run in the ninth.

Bob Coulson paced the losers at the plate with a homer and a double. Coulson's homer came in the fourth with one man on base.

The day started with door-to-door tagging and later the boys and their handlers marched from the plaza to the park bearing placards and sporting their team colours. The Georgetown Girls' Pipe Band and the Georgetown Citizens' Band headed the procession.

A release from the Minor Ball Association said the organization was most appreciative of the response to the Tag Day and expressed their thanks to all who contributed and helped make the Baseball Day a success.
