STEWARTTOWN

Stewarttown Principal Gets University Credit
Congratulations to Mr. R. V. Gibbons, principal of Stewarttown School, who was successful in passing his McMaster University Course, which he took in evening classes at the Georgetown High School, during the winter months.
Mr. Gibbons expects to attend summer classes at McMaster with Economics and Geography his subjects.
He and Mrs. Mae Hall, and family visited with Mrs. and Mrs. Stuart Hall on Sunday, and Mrs. Hall Sr. who has been visiting with them in her home near Tara.
Sympathy of the Community is extended to the family of the late Mrs. Blair, who passed away on Sunday in Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Blair, who is the former Flora Shepherd, was born in Stewarttown and attended public school and St. John's Church, as a young girl, and since moving to Georgetown has been a frequent visitor to special church services, and social functions connected with the church.
