LADIES DAY

The Ladies Auxiliary annual picnic will take place at Terra Cotta on Monday July 8th for those who love picnics that is the Monday following the Brimble. Transportation will leave the Legion Hall at 2:30 p.m. The ladies picnic should be a good one the weaker sex are generally better picnickers than men. The ladies, for one thing, remove the ants from their sandwiches whereas by that time on the day men can't see the ants.

Some Openings Still For YMCA Day Camp

Applications are still coming in for the Georgetown & District YMCA - YWCA Camp. The Camp is divided into three weekly periods: July 15-19, July 22-26 and July 29-August 2. The buildings are of a modern Canadian design in motel style. All the wood for the beautiful camp was donated and brought from B.C. to the site also free. With all modern conveniences Geneva Park is now able to operate year round for conference purposes.

Too Bad! No Trophy For Gas Buggy Polo

North Halton Golf Club was the scene on Saturday of the Zone golf tournament. 63 golfers from Port Credit, Brampton, Milton and Georgetown vied for the trophy, which this year went to the happy Georgetown crew. The championship team that brought the silverware to Brimble was composed of Harvey Chappel, who shot a 69, Jack Timponson with a 70, Ken Nash 77 and Jack Tinsdale 80. Andy St. Laurent, who also scored an 80, was 'pulled out' by Jack Tinsdale in a tie-breaking round on the putting green. In addition to the team trophy individual trophies went to Harvey Chappel for low gross and Jack Timponson for low net. Numerous golf balls were passed out after lunch for various scores, such as for 'Most honest golfer'...
