

St. Michael's Choristers Sing at Grad Banquet

Graduation exercises were held in Holy Cross Church and school for the Grade 8 class on Sunday, June 23rd.

Graduation Banquet At Limehouse School

The meaningful and colourful church ceremony was conducted by the pastor Rev. O. DeVent.

The sweet singing of the school choir directed by Mrs. A. J. Norris added greatly to the significance of the impressive ceremony.

Rev. J. J. Pasery of St. Cecilia's Parish in Toronto was the guest speaker. Father Pasery, who has always been deeply interested in young people, reminded the graduates of their responsibilities in the three main phases of their education: the building and care of a healthy body, training of the mind, and acquisition of a most important life goal — the attainment of their eternal destiny.

Certificates of promotion were presented to each graduate by Rev. O. DeVent, assisted by the Principal Mr. T. J. Fitzmaurice.

The church ceremonies were concluded by Benediction. The hymns, during Benediction, were sung beautifully by a guest choir from St. Michael's Cathedral Choir School, Toronto.

This choir, comprised of 100 trained singers, left a lasting impression on all present by the quality of their singing.

Raymond Norris, a very efficient and accomplished pianist and organist, also a student at the school, accompanied and directed the boys.

The parents and graduates motored to Holy Cross Auditorium where the ladies of the Catholic Women's League had prepared a banquet unsurpassed in quality, quantity and good taste.

After the banquet, special prizes were presented to Miss Marie Pienard, Mrs. Persons, the CWL president, presented a prize for greatest achievement among the girls during the 1962-63 term.

To Michael Parniak a similar award was donated by the Holy Name Society and presented by the president Mr. H. Diamond.

Both presidents expressed the pleasure of their organizations in doing something for the recipients as added words of encouragement.

Anna Valk, Judy Law and Anne Bonnette were presented with prizes by Mr. Fitzmaurice for outstanding contribution to Parish and school endeavours during the year.

Rev. O. DeVent and Mr. R. Thompson spoke briefly to the graduates and their parents, complimenting the boys and girls on their success and encouraging them to continue their education in this age when education is so necessary for steady employment and good citizenship.

A fitting climax was reached when Mr. Ray Norris explained the purpose of the Choir School and introduced each of the singers. This talented group then sang "O Saretissima", "Pans Angeli", and "Jubilate Deo". The prolonged applause expressed the pleasure of all who were present.

Miss Geraldine Beck, one of the graduates, very rapidly thanked all who made this lovely graduation such a pleasant memory for each graduate.
