SUNDAY UPSET

GOT A BREAK HERE BUT MIDGETS BLANKED 7-0

GEORGETOWN MIDGETS had the proverbial rug pulled from under them Sunday. Playing winless Brampton the town crew failed to push a runner all the way around the base paths while seven Brampton runners chugged home. Brampton's total may have been more but they got the rough end of the stick on this close play at first. The umpire gave it the thumb to complete the double play but the camera shows the Brampton fielder's cleats on the base while first sacker Steve Turner still waits for the ball.

HORNBY

Hornby Red Shirts Move Into First Place

Hornby Red Shirts moved back into a first place tie with the Glen Williams team when they defeated the Omagh B's, 22-3 at Hornby on Wednesday night, July 3rd. Gary Cox pitched the victor when he fanned seven batters and gave up two walks. Mervin Curtis accepted the loss, lasting five and giving up four walks. Hornby jumped on the B's for two five-run innings and an eight run bust over the six frame route. They scored two, one and one run kicks in the second through to the fourth frames. Singles by Dave Leslie and Don Learmont and a walk to Charlie Gillies loaded the bases to start the five-run uprising for Hornby in the first inning. Art Brooks singled across the first run and Don Chisholm's two base hit counted two more. Cox's triple scored the other two runs. Cox started the other five-run inning when he drew a free pass. The base on balls was compounded by back to back singles by Fred Arnold and Graham Gillies. Jamie Cunningham's double scored two runs. Gillies doubled in his second trip to the plate during the inning. The two bagger counted a pair of runs. Gillies scored when the Omagh catcher attempted a pickoff at third base. Chisholm started the eight run splurge in the final inning when he hit a double to left field. Cox followed the punch when he poled a 200 foot home run into left field. A single and an error set the stage for Jamie Cunningham's two run double. John Willmott and Learmont loaded the bases. Willmott drew a walk and one of Omagh's pitcher's offerings struck Learmonth on the shoulder. A free pass to Blake Inglis forced in a run. Chisholm singled in a second trip to the plate to count one run. Cox followed with a double to bring the total to eight after the first inning of play to splurge in the 5th inning. Hornby added a pair in the 6th inning and pushed another four across in the final frame. Palermo opened their scoring inning. They were unable to score again until the 14th inning when they counted one run. They added a pair in the 7th stanza and one in the final inning. Jamie Cunnigham hurled the first six innings and John Willmott took over in the 7th to win the victory. Don Heslop and Wilf Inglehart shared the mound duties for the losers. Hornby jumped to their 5-run explosion in the 5th inning on Ron McLean's 220-foot homer with the bases loaded. Graham Gillies started the inning when he received a lift from an infield error. Dave Leslie followed with a double that scored Gillies. A walk to Don Learmont and a free base on an error preceded McLean's round tripper. Blake Inglis circled the basepaths when a throw-in from the outfield got by Palermo's third sacker as Inglis rounded second base in the ninth inning.

Singles by Dave Leslie and Don Learmont set the stage for Hornby's second home run of the night. Gillies picked a 2-1 offering 230 feet to score three runs. Palermo's biggest inning was in the first frame when they scored five of their nine runs. John Inglehart punched a triple, followed by a double by Don Heslop to count the first run. Wilf Inglehart punched the second double to score Heslop. Jack Donaldson homered to account for the third, fourth and fifth runs of the frame. A triple and a single in the fifth inning scored Palermo's sixth run. An overthrow made Ralph McFeeter's run-producing double and Roy Fox's single, score two more for Palermo in the eighth.

McFeeter's ninth inning double and Fox's single scored the final run of the game.

On Friday nite Hornby played their second game of the week and regained top place in the league as they trounced the Palermo team at Palermo by a score of 14-9. The Red Shirts battled back from a 5-2 deficit

A BLOW FOR PERSISTENCE

"GET OUT AN' WALK"

AUTOMOBILE ATHLETES are going to have to exert themselves to avoid depressing the accelerator pedal if they intend to continue their jaunts through the park. On the unanimous recommendation of Parks Committee, Council has approved a motion to close the park to traffic passed by council. Consequently this new chain barrier and sign now halt the car-cowboys from using the park for their jalopy slaloms. Council hopes the move will also help to reduce recurring vandalism to park facilities.

Giants Tumble After Leading Twice in Game

Dundas Merchants scored 8 runs in the first frame of a Halton Intermediate League contest last Thursday to defeat Georgetown Greys 10-7.

Georgetown had built up 4-1 and 7-2 leads as they entered play in the fatal last half inning. The big blow of the inning was Ken Pipe's bases-loaded home run.

Pipe looped a 2-1 pitch about 300 feet into left centre field. It was his second hit of the inning as 12 men paraded to the plate before the Georgetown pitcher.

Dundas drew first blood on Don McPhail's single and Ken Pipe's left field double in the second inning.

Georgetown pumped to a 4-1 lead in the next inning on two costly errors. Bernie Dore started the rally when he singled through the Dundas infield.

Russ Bradley drew a walk and Max Stafford drafted a single to score Dore. Jon Martino dropped a fly ball in left field allowing another runner to come across the plate.

Jim James pumped a hard ground ball to third base but the throw to first was dropped. The marker showed the fourth run of the inning.

Dundas tied the ball game at 7-7 with two runs in their half of the fourth frame. Phil Martino drew a walk to start the small rally and took second and third bases on passed balls.

Pipe's second base hit of the game scored Martino with the run.

Georgetown all but put the game away with a three run burst in the fifth frame. Russ Bradley started the uprising when a pitch struck him on the leg.

Stafford followed Bradley when Dundas third sacker George Fraser threw his ground ball away.

Phil Martino erred on McLachlan's grounder allowing Giants to fill the bases. Jim James' long fly to right field scored Bradley and Tom James singled to plate Stafford. The final run of the inning came across when the Dundas catcher attempted to throw out James on his attempt to steal second base.

Pipe started the seventh inning rally that won the game for Dundas. He singled but was called out when he tried to steal second base.

Five consecutive singles and a run-scoring fly ball counted three of the eight runs and chased starting pitcher Bernie Dore in the final inning.

Reliefer Roger Cummins gave up a single to Martino and threw the gopher ball that Pipe hit for the round-tripper. It was Pipe's second hit of the inning and fourth safety in as many trips to the plate.

Merchants Ride to 13th Win Field Hurls Seventh Success

Campbellville Merchants marched to their 13th victory of the season under the capable left wing of Gary Field last Wednesday.

Field claimed his seventh straight victory as he spread five hits across seven innings in leading Merchants to an 8-1 triumph over the Georgetown Grands.

The victory pushed the front runners legal over the .500 mark to the tune of 13 points.

It was the 80th loss of the Halton Intermediate League season for the Grands. They scored their only run in the bottom of the sixth inning after the Merchants had constructed an 8-0 lead.

Merchants opened the scoring with a run in the first inning. They added another single in the third stanza and piled back to back three run bursts in their total in the fifth and sixth frames.

Glen Gibbs and Lyn McClaren performed on the mound for the losers. Field claimed 10 Grands on strikes and permitted one batter a base on balls.

Al Wingrove started the winners with a triple in the first inning. He scored on a passed ball.

LYN McLAREN

John Nicholson pushed the lead to 2-0 in the third inning when he singled sharply through the Giant infield. He stole second base and advanced to third on a fielder's choice. He came through with the run when one of Gibb's pitches went past Georgetown catcher Max Stafford.

Nicholson started the first three run rally with his second single of the game.

A base on balls to Terry Fetter and Ken Moore's single scored the left fielder with Merch-

MIDGETS MISSING

Team Drops Pair Manager Drops Axe

After finally reaching the pinnacle of success before the holiday week-end, the Georgetown Midgets dropped to the basement of despair. Only 7 players showed up for Saturday's game against Milton and to add to the woes of manager Richmond, only nine players were out for the encounter against Brampton on Sunday at the park. After taking it on the chin 20-5 only a week ago, Brampton came into town with only nine players, four of them Bantam, and walloped the local crew 8-0.

Honourable mention must go to Mike Tost, who pitched his heart out and had nobody to relieve him. Don Chisholm, who did likewise, and pitched the last two innings, though definitely not a pitcher, Wayne Densmore who put on his uniform and caught behind the plate for the last two innings with a wrenched shoulder. Terry Lane who had to relieve the error ridden shortstop position. Ron Lane who got the only two hits of the game.

Manager Richmond promised a clamp down on players not turning up for games or practices without prior clearance, with a hint that such infractions must mean being dropped from the team. The downhill play and hitting of John Monkman and Gus Holmes has hurt the club considerably.

The Milton game was re-scheduled for Tuesday night and thanks must be offered from Georgetown to the Milton manager, Brush, who could have just taken the game on forfeit. Next home encounter is on Sunday at the park against Campbellville Juveniles.

BROKEN BATS

This was Brampton's first win of the season after 8 starts. It was disclosed that if the local boys don't pull their socks up that Manager Richmond has been offered the job of handling the Oakville Juvenile Club and folding the local crew after the regular season play on July 21st.

Rod Alcorn led Los Angeles to a 7-3 victory, pitching a 3-hitter and striking out 12 in a row. Dave Puckering of Chicago pitched 5 of 6 innings, allowing only 2 runs on 4 hits, while Barry Scinski was the star for Boston, hitting a three-bagger. Paul White of Kansas played well but Boston had too much power at bat.

New York beat Detroit in the last inning for their 11 to 10 win. Donald Densmore hit two triples for New York, driving in four runs to pull the game out of the fire.

The Georgetown Minor Baseball Association would like to thank Councillor W. R. Smith and the Council for closing the park to cars at the treed area as this organization has noticed a great improvement in broken glass and dust in the park.

We would like to see more parents of the boys down at the park on ball nights, to come and bring the family as there is lots of room for small children with sand boxes, swings, etc. to entertain them and parents will have no worry about cars speeding through the play area.

Lose to Lowville Glen Drops A Notch

Glen Williams entry in the Halton County Rural Softball League slid back into second place last week by losing one of their two tilts last week. The Glen doubled the score on Palermo 10-5 on Tuesday but fell behind Hornby by taking a 7-3 set-back from Lowville Friday.

Bill Richardson started in the losing cause and went five innings allowing 4 runs before Tom Peavoy came on in relief. Peavoy hurled three frames unscathed, but John Holtby took over the pitching chore for the last two innings and was tagged for 3 more.

The Glen bunched their runs and scored all 3 in the bottom of the 5th.
