HOOTS AND YAHOOOS rattle around the rafters as square dancers at the Barn Dance on the Cliff Cook farm Saturday, swing their partners. The Freddie McDougall Orchestra provided the old time music.

ASHGROVE

Marilyn Wilson Feted
At Ashgrove Shower

A very happy afternoon was spent on Saturday, July 13th, in the church basement when Mrs. Fred Nurse, Mrs. Len Cude and Mrs. Cliff Hunter were hostesses to a shower in honour of Marilyn Wilson on a bus to Ashgrove for her August bride-to-be. A short W.I. trip to London, Ont. program was held. Dinner, music, games and dancing followed. Mrs. Fran Wright, Mrs. Edna Thompson sang two delightful songs. The afternoon was a most enjoyable one for all concerned. They arrived at the hotel on the contents of Springbrook Park where all of a lady's purse, after which had lunch and then went to the platform through the Story Book Garden.

Eclipse Could Blind You
For Rest of Your Life

Don't look directly at the sun which will appear as a partial eclipse of the Sun which will dark patches in the field of vision. This Saturday, July 19th, the sun will be partially obscured by the moon. The danger of looking directly at the sun is that it can cause permanent blindness. The sun's rays are so intense that they can burn the retina of the eye. This is why it is so important to wear proper eye protection when viewing the eclipse. Sixty Members
Take 4-H Bus Trip

The 1963 Halton 4-H Bus Trip was held on Thursday, July 11th. Sixty members from the three counties of the County took part in this trip, visiting four major areas of Metropolitan Toronto and surrounding districts. The four stops included: The Northern Electric Company, Bramalea, Rexall, Ontario Water Resources Commission Laboratory, and Meadowland's Nursery. The trip was a great success and all members enjoyed the day.

ONCE OPERATED
BUSINESS HERE
MARK CLARK DIES

A lifetime resident of Georgetown and Glen Williams, Mark Clark, 84, passed away late Friday afternoon, July 12th. His death was the result of a stroke suffered while in Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital. He had undergone an operation and was recovering nicely, and expected to be released this week. Mr. Clark had been in ill health for the past year and a half.

Born in Glen Williams, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Clark, he had lived in the Glen until his marriage to Margaret Alice McKinnon, in 1916, when they moved to Georgetown. Mrs. Clark predeceased him on July 14th, 1954. He received his education in the Glen and Georgetown and as a young man was employed at Beaumont's Woolen Mill and the lower mill of Provincial Paper. Later he became a familiar figure in the business life of Main Street, working for many years in grocery stores operated by the late A. M. Grandy and John McDermott. Shortly after the first world war Mr. Clark purchased the grocery store and bakery known as the Georgetown Cooperative, and operated it until the early '30s. During that time he served as secretary treasurer of Georgetown Businessmen's Association.

Your Home...

...is a symbol of your personal achievement. How regrettable it would be if, in the event of your death, your family were forced to give up that home because they could not afford to meet the mortgage payments. Fortunately, you can provide for just such an eventuality by taking out a Sun Life Mortgage Protection Policy now. I will be glad to give you details, and there will be no obligation on your part.
