

VIRGINIA, THAT: WAS A CHRISTMAS TREE

YOU SAY THEY TRIED to slap a canvass jacket on you when you told them about the decorated Christmas tree on top of the house last week? Then consider this picture exhibit No. 1 for your defense when the case comes up. That is a Christmas tree, fully decorated, on top of a house on the 8th line just north of Main Street. The gay evergreen was put there by workmen on the Zorge Construcion Co., who decided to perpetuate a custom common in the central and eastern European countries. There, whenever the roof work is completed on a building under construction a fir is erected on the highest point and neighbours regard it as a signal to take some food for their cupboards and gather for a spontaneous party. The house is being built for Dr. Allan

Doug Latimer Heads Local P. C's

Last Thursday evening, July 8th, a meeting of the Georgeown Progressive Conservative party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas V. Latimer. The meeting was well at tended, and was held outside on the lawn, in view of the heat. The meeting was called to elect an executive, in view of two resignations, that of the president. Les Clark, who re signed because of ill health some months ago, and that of the treasurer, John Ord, since his appointment as magistrate.

The meeting was chaired by the past president, who welcomed the guests. He thanked all. those who had belped him during his time in office, a period is of 15 years. Mr. Clark then introduced the Tory candidate, George Kerra who spoke, asking for their support, and also elling of campaign plans for the coming election.
