GLEN WILLIAMS

EVERSONS RETURN FROM TRIP TO SCOT

Mr. and Mrs. W. Everson and Carolyn have returned from a three week trip to the west. They motored through the States arriving at Calgary in time to see the opening parade of the Calgary Stampede, visiting with an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. R. Robinson. They visited Baffin and Lake Louise and Field, B.C. and had their pictures taken at "The Great Divide." They motored north to Edmonton where they visited cousins, Mr. and Mrs. J. Gray. On their return trip they visited Mr. and Mrs. J. Preston in Winnipeg. While in Calgary they experienced the bad electrical storm which we heard of and read about just the day before the Stampede opened. En route home they visited relatives at Burwash, arriving home Thursday evening. The greatest thrill of the trip was to see the snow-capped Rockies.

Marty Wheeler is at the Ontario Youth Music Camp, Beaverton, this week. It is operated by the Canadian Bandmasters' Association. Harold and Nan visited him Sunday at the camp.

Susan Preston is in Sick Children's Hospital this week. She is in having her body cast changed again. We hope she'll soon be home and feeling better.

Mitchell Wagstaffe and Stephen Hunter are attending the Humber Glen Camp at Bolton for ten days. It is the United Church camp for Peel and Halton Counties.

STEWARTTOWN

TOURISTS SEE BEAUTY OF OUR HAMLET

Each day through the holiday season brings motorists from all parts of the country, and the States, who admire the scenery of our little hamlet. Some just stop and look at the scenery. Some have cameras and carry away the pictures to pack up with their holiday memories and some bring their paint brushes trying to capture the colour and beauty of it all.

Who live here take it all for granted and we were reminded of this recently when we came across an old picture postcard. The card, one of a series of local beauty spots and views printed in England in the early 1900's, shows an old bobby in her bonnet and shawl, looking from a high hill over lovely country, site and underneath was printed: "It was recently reported in the local press that a native woman celebrated her 80th birthday by assisting for her first time one of the beauty spots within half an hour's walk of her home. Old Betsy having dwelt there all her days can't understand the tourists' lavish praise. 'Ehe, dear,' she cries, 'why mak sech fuss and chatter?' There's moat to see but hills and trees and water."

Mrs. Clayton Allen held a little dinner party to celebrate her granddaughter Margo Williams' eleventh birthday last Friday. Those attending were her grandmother, Mrs. R. Williams of Stewarttown, Margo and sister Judy and her aunt, Mrs. W. Everson and Mr. and Mrs. Allen.

We extend congratulations and best wishes to Jacqueline Lucas and John Rodger of Toronto on their forthcoming marriage in St. Alban's Church on Monday evening, August 5th.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Wadsworth of Hamilton visited Mr. and Mrs. C. Barth on Sunday.

The United Nations is a Communist bankrup, mainly because Communist nations won't pay their share of expenses. It does seem that as much as Communist delegates like to argue and harangue at UN sessions, they would be willing to pay for Mr. and Mrs. Ab Ford and the privilege.

NORVAL

NORVALITES HOME FROM NEW BRUNSWICK TRIP

Mrs. Orval Shea, Lynda Norman and Miss Judy Jaffey have returned home from an enjoyable ten day trip to New Brunswick. While in New Brunswick they attended the wedding of Miss Annabella Briggs of Plaster Rock, N.B. to Mr. Herb Wilson of Georgetown on Saturday, July 13th. Miss Jaffey and Miss Briggs are both on the staff of Georgetown District Memorial Hospital.

On their return trip they called in at the home of Mrs. Shea's sister at Oshawa and brought her nephew David Perly back for some holidays.

Rev. R. Stables of St. Paul's Anglican Church has been on holidays for the month of July and lay readers have been taking the services.

Miss Thelma Hunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hunter, Georgetown, was guest of honour at a miscellaneous show held in the Presbyterian Church, Norval, on Tuesday evening, July 16th by the ladies of the church.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Blake Baxter, Mrs. J. V. McClure and Mrs. Tom McGee. About 70 guests enjoyed a game and contest after which the small girls present carried in the many gifts Thelma was assisted in opening.
