TRIPLE THE FUN ON LATEST PARK ADDITION

NEWEST ADDITION to the growing playground facilities in the park is this three-faceted contraption — a slide, a bridge, monkey-bar playhouse, and slide all in one. It was recently purchased by the park's board and arrived last week. Obviously it's being made use of.

Hyatt McClure Hosts Cleave Family Reunion

The Cleave Family Reunion was held on Sunday afternoon July 28th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hyatt McClure. A picnic lunch and social time was enjoyed by relatives from Georgetown, Acton, Guelph, Waterdown and Norval.

Friends of Mrs. Edith Scott are sorry to hear that she is a patient in Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton. She has been staying at the Norval Nursing Home in recent years. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Copley are looking forward to Sunday August 4th when their son Bob will arrive home for thirty days leave from Calgary. He is with the Strathcona Horse Guards Military Police and spent most of the summer stationed at Wainwright Alberta. It is a year since Bob has been home.

Mrs. Angus McDonald was a very lucky winner at the Bingo held at the Riviera Monday evening July 22nd when she won one hundred dollars in gratuities.

Mrs. Tallie Kjeldsen Gunn Britt, Paul and Ann, have left for a visit to their former home in Norway. We hope they have an enjoyable voyage and visit.

The Presbyterian Church WMS were entertained by the COC (Children of the Church) on Tuesday afternoon, July 23 at the church.

Leaders of the COC are Mrs. Andrew McClure and Mrs. I. Reynolds. The children put on a varied program. All the children took part in a Bible reading and a couple of songs that they had learned. Mar Clarke and Mary McClure favoured with piano solos. Atta Donna Reynolds, Karen Robison and Mary Clarke sang. La McClure was in the choir for the program.

Bonnie Endley and Debbie Reynolds were in charge of the games for the children and Elizabeth Clarke and Jane McClure had some contests for the WMS members.

Following the program and games a lovely lunch was served and a social time enjoyed. The lunch committee was Mrs. Harold Reed, Mrs. Herb Anthony, Mrs. R. Duncanson and Mrs. I. Reynolds.

July has been a trying month for several Norval families. Mr. and Mrs. Julian Reed and Christopher have moved to "The Elms". Julian and his mother Mrs. E. C. Reed have moved into the apartment at "The Elms". Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith moved into the house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Reed. They had been living in Mrs. E. Switzer's house which is now rented to Mr. Stewart Simpson who operates the Imperial Service Station just outside the village at the top of the Georgetown hill. K. J. Schick's Service Station beside the United Church has been sold to Mr. Keith VanderVeldt of Brampton and is now operated by him. Mr. and Mrs. E. Behow and family live in the house which was sold with the gas station.
