Local Quarter Horse Winner At Horse Show

Magnolia Sorel, a quarter borse owned and ricklen by Joan lonson of Georgetown was the first place winner in the Pleasure Horse Class at the first public horse show at Style Acres Ranch, between Georgetown and Acton, Saturday, July 20th.

189 borsemen and borsewo men took their spirited animals over the tricky outdoor obstacle course at the ranch owned by Bruno Schisizzi, a former Georgetown hair stylist and a well known manager of Bruno's Hair Styling Schools. An early morning downpour failed to discourage the large furnout. Shortly after skies cleared and the sum began to shine the liret of 80 horses began to arrive at the farm. Mr Sclisizzi himself awns fifteen

Dave Humphries of Malton popular Canadian horse sho judge, considered the course one of the best he has seen. His, opinion was supported several times through the day by horsemen from throughout the province.

Approximately three hundred spectators passed through the elaborate farm gates and watched as the enthusiastic riders put their sleek animals through their paces. A late afternoon rain halted the program briefly, but by nightful all fourteen events had been

Although this show was run independently, Mr Schsizzi applied for registration in the Canadian Horse Show Association and anticipates running mother show in the fall lie intends to make it an annual

The judges and ringmasters considered seven of the out side jumps too hazardons in view of the wet and slippery condition of the ground and hanned them from competition Despite this several riders took their horses over some of the jumps only to be disqualified when the Lowville pitcher wal, when they strayed off course ! heart site swam at the at We and set a Canadian record.
