Home Runs Rout Giants—Campbellville Now Two Up

Campbellville Merchants used the home run route Sunday afternoon to hammer Georgetown Giants 10-4 and take a 2-0 lead in the best of seven Halton Intermediate League semi-finals.

Pacing the Merchants' attack was utility infielder Elmer Dredge who drove in 3 runs with a pair of round trippers

Georgetown gave the Merchants a few uneasy moments in the early innings when they jumped into a 4-2 lead with three runs in the third and a single tally in the 5th.

Dredge's 5th inning blast tied the game and another pair of runs in the 6th wrapped it up

Jack Roberts went all the way to pick up the Campbellville win although he was in and out of trouble most of the way.

He struck out a dozen Giants and walked three, leaving seven on base

Ester Rogers Cummings' junkball pitcher went seven innings before being lifted for Bernie Hore

Stan Henderson, Merchant 3rd sacker, hit a two-run homer in the second inning and Jack Price socked one out of the park with a man on in the 7th

A single by Tracy Barraser and Don MacLachlan's double pushed the Giants three 2nd inning runs across

Jim James' single in the 5th scored Dan Mossop with number four

Third game of the series was slated for last night Wednesday in Georgetown
