PRIEST'S SILVER JUBILEE

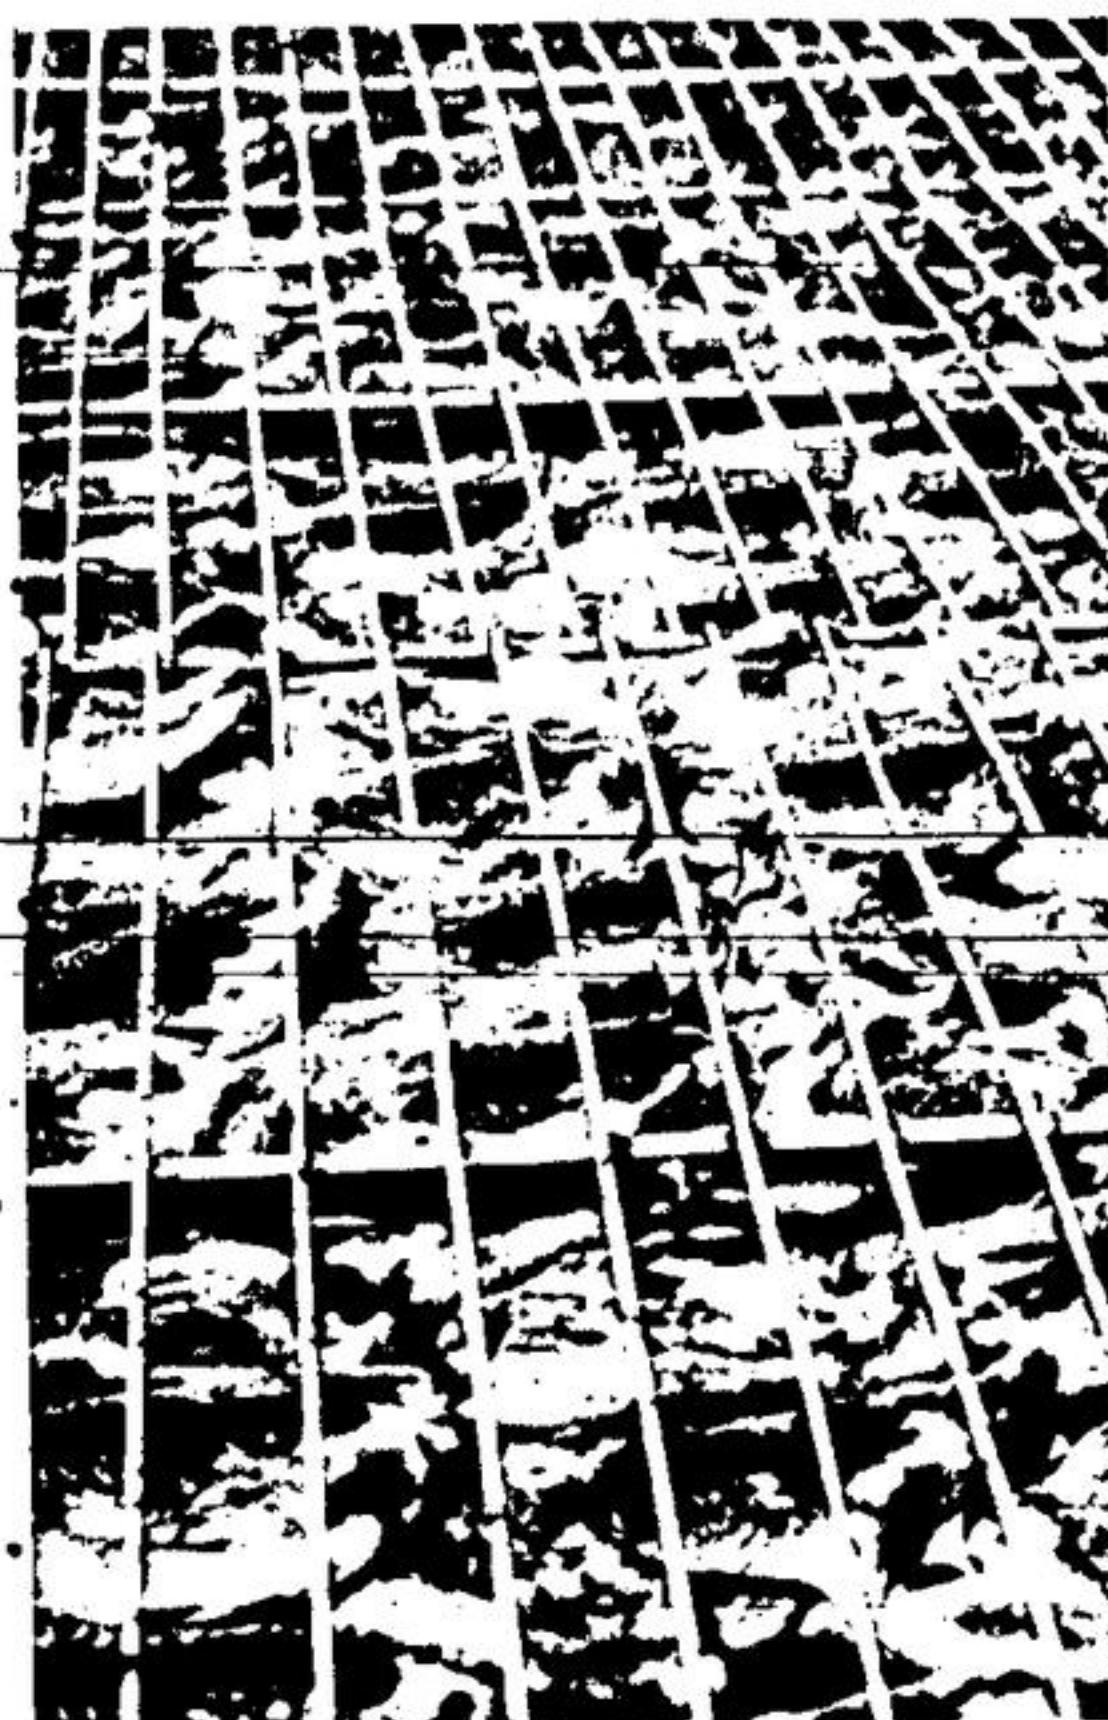

THIS HANDSOME CAKE, with its silver 25, tells the story for Fr. Oger DeVeit, pastor of Holy Cross R.C. Church who celebrated his silver jubilee in the priesthood on Sunday. A seminary teacher in St. John's, Newfoundland, he directs at the seminary at Orangeville in the growing Georgetown parish.

Sister Comes from Holland To Attend Silver Jubilee

Sunday was a special day. Women's League served dinner then appointed to come to Can- at the rectory to visiting aide to help develop a branch of the local Boy Scouts and representatives of the Order in English-speaking Canada. He taught for three years at the Seminary in Holland. Miss Bernadine de Bleheim, was pastor at St. Boniface, Manitoba, and followed by a parish reception. Veit, who is a grade school teacher in Aster, came to town Princeton, Ont., and three weeks ago was appointed to attend the event.

Fr. DeVeit officiated at 4:00 p.m. mass in the church. A native of Aven, Fr. DeVeit received his classical studies as pastor. He also Archangel, a teacher at the Minor Seminary in Orangeville seminary as presbyter of the Capuchin Order, took Orangeville, Toronto, enjoyed a two week summer vacation in Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia, and home by way of New Brunswick, along the St. John's River. They particularly enjoyed the scenic beauty of Prince Edward Island, re-marking on the many different shades of green to be seen in the highly cultivated country side, and the neat attractive way in which every home is kept, no matter how humble a dwelling might be. In Nova Scotia, the family visited Ship Harbour birthplace of Mrs. Young's mother. They also visited in Dartmouth, where they stayed at the home of Commander and Mrs. Ray Cole. Mrs. Cole is a sister of Mr. James Graham, 12 Shelley St., while in Prince Edward Island, the Youngs met another Georgetowner, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Kitchen and daughter Valerie. 82 Prince Charles Drive and they spent a couple of days together. The Kitchen spent two weeks for their holiday motor trip to the Maritimes, visiting also in Nova Scotia and in New Brunswick. Enroute home they called on Mr. and Mrs. Armitage in Des- said the deputy reeve. "We are the parents of former Georgetowner, Mrs. Tom Rush. Mr. and Mrs. Rush and children, who now live in Barrie, were also visiting with standstill."

WHAT COUNCIL DID

Urge Proceed With Town Traffic Study

The proposed Dept. of Highways traffic study, a subject which comes up with the same frequency as potholes, agitation, was a pleasant time when reviewed Monday night at members of the past clubs, the present club and the junior Council meeting.

A copy of the letter to the club (the club of the future) Dept. of Highways asking for a social time.

Earlier the Dept. of Highways asked to manipulate the roads, where was had written that a survey they wanted the roads were been made a few years ago, and since some of the older roads had only been mailed on and since some of the older roads were not complete it was Monday (the day of the meeting) difficult for them to locate and Council felt perhaps they should wait a week for an answer.

Unadmitted, Coun. Hildebrandt endeavoured to complete a complete photo list of former members advocate no more delay. "Let's at least make a start," he voted, "we've done nothing so far."

The mayor disagreed, saying "The first step in our campaign for a 9th line access road was this taken two or three years ago. Mrs. Gladys Chester, Mrs. when a delegation went down Gladys Lester and Mrs. Doug to Queen's Park, to Mr. Cass, Sargent were the social committee Minister of Highways."
