

U-U-M DEELISHUSS

"WHAT IS IT?" WE ASKED on page 1. Enough barbecued chicken to feed 400 hungry souls who flocked to the annual event at Hornby Saturday. The Saunders and Bradleys were among the people who made short work of a sumptuous meal. Left to right, Johnny Saunders, Karen Bradley, Judy Saunders, Tom Bradley.

HORNBY

Threatening Rain So Barbecue is Indoors

The annual Hornby Community Park Board chicken barbecue was held on Saturday night at the Orange-Hall. The barbecue was to be held in the park, but due to the cold weather and threatening rain, it was held indoors where it was attended by 400 people. The chicken was delicious as well as the different salads, rolls, tomatoes, pickles, and pie.

The Hornby Women's Club and last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. St. Stephens Anglican Guild. The meeting included the first 40 Club members of the Orange-Hall. The meeting opened with the playing of the national anthem. Mrs. St. Stephens presided over the meeting. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Velma. The business portion of the meeting was spent planning for the booth to be set up for the fair. The secretary Mrs. Law Samp was also present. A letter from the Anglican Guild was read by Mrs. Velma. A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Marjorie. The meeting was assisted by Mrs. Cecil Patterson.
