Well, the playoffs are showing some unexpected events in the international start of the second round Toronto and Richmond both won their games by default over Buffalo and Jacksonville.

In the American League Cleveland defeated Los Angeles 2 games straight by scores 8-1 and 6-3. Cleveland now meets Boston in the second round. Detroit and Washington face New York and Baltimore.

As for the National League Boston defeated Minnesota 2 games to 1. In the National League, San Francisco defeated the Dodgers 10-2. San Francisco and St. Louis tied 7-7 in their first meeting.

The American League field is just Sunday games. Last week, New York Yankees played their next game of the season. The playoffs played their position was. Donnie Demeter played second base and played outland.

Bob Uecker pitched the whole game. Tom Garza was the starting pitcher for Baltimore. Cleveland defeated Los Angeles 6-3 who played a steady game but could not hold on to the lead. Los Angeles had a 3-0 lead in the game when Garza stopped Bob Uecker.

There is nothing new I can say to the fans. We have been mentioned in the first round except some one has to win and some one has to lose. So August 29th and 30th will be one of the winners.

The American League first round is second round on Aug. 29th for first game. Second will be on Sept. 3rd.
