

WED AT FIRST BAPTIST

BARBARA ELLEN IRWIN and Roy Ivan Johnson were married in First Baptist Church on July 27th and are living at 29 John St. E. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Irwin, 76 River Drive. Mr. Johnson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson, R. R. 1, Limehouse.

We will start this week's pluck and courage the Branch ramblings by extending in 120 Ladies Auxiliary has picture congratulations to the bride on Friday, 13 September. The fact that the band has not performed for some time is not a deterrent as at 7 p.m. and will be followed by a dance. Tickets at $2.00 and place at the C.N.E. Last week's competition and hearty agreement with the judges' decisions. We might also add that with their blazers and 243 flannels they were the smartest looking group there.

TALLY-HO

Tally ho pip pip and all that, it's hunting time again. Saddle up a trusty steed (another member will do) and to the plaintive baying of the hounds (Les Legionnaires) gallop out and bag a fox (new member) or maybe a ground hog (straggling old member). A host of Legion activities that have been idling for the summer are getting into gear and can use all the van wags and vitality that are and a legion of new members can give.

TIME FOR TONSIL TUNING

Charlie Cranes, our Glee Club Director, advises that the harmony hounds will be starting a busy season in the very near future and will set a date within a week for the first tonsil tuning session. In the meantime anyone who has suppressed an urge to warble with the boys is invited to give Charlie a call and become one of Les Legionnaires.

We are advised that enthusiasm is a far more desirable tribute than a trained voice. If a man has quality in his heart Charlie can put the quality in his vocal cords. Incidentally the stick that our choral director waves at the boys is not a baton it is a magic wand it has to be an ordinary baton waved at those guys couldn't work such wonders.

Any Glee Club member or Charlie Cranes at 875-9772 can advise a singing sister or brother in time and place to join the group.
