Pressure Continues for Better Access to 401

"Axes to grind" are the usu al grist for the electioneering mills, but locally it looks like after the elections. "If you are "Access to 401" will be the password to the polls, not only it on the candidates, Kerr, provincially—but municipally.
Mullin and the other chaps" Upon receiving a letter was the way he expressed from the Department of High Local elections crept in, when ways saying that their traffic Reeve Elliott said. "At no study would be completed ination time we state what we till 1964, Councillor Hildebrandt intend to do, and list what we brandt at Monday's council have done if we had a firm meeting immediately suggested commitment from the Minister that a letter be sent to the on an access road, it might Department pointing out the, make a difference," he opined. need for an access road to 401. "There's no harm in trying "I want to keep the issue for an appointment with this brandt," emphasized Coun. Hildebrandt. "The important thing brandt, "the important thing and if there's another in six is that it not lie dormant weeks time, we'll try for an "Coun. W. Smith agreed. "We appointment with him." have to keep hammering a Coun. Hildebrandt agreed way," he commented. that a letter to the Minister Reeve J. Elliott suggested would be the wiser course, and they go down, and have any offered to withdraw his motion their audience. "With another Just as the mayor was making election coming up" added he to withdraw it, Reeve Elliott puty Reeve, Hunter, "the pop pointed out that a motion can be put see now, might not be not be withdrawn without coun there later. In fact it could be ill's approval a party you never heard of be. "We have always extended fore" sniped the deputy reeve the courtesy to anyone, that "Sometimes people like to they can withdraw a motion" know where they stand before reeve the mayor, "don't you election," opined Reeve Elliott wish to extend this courtesy "We have to let them know anyone," he demanded the 7th Line is not good" re "It wasn't done that way last iterated Coun. Hildebrandt year" replied the Reeve "We don't want to make de There were lots of things mands," said Coun. J. Young, I don't approve of last year."
"To say the 7th Line is totally the mayor answered inadequate is wrong We should" Following this little inter write a pleasant letter." Using chance Coun. Hildebrandt the well-known maxim, he can withdraw his motion, and pre tioned, "You can catch more sented another, asking for an flies with honey than vinegar" audience an access road to 401 The mayor felt the only hope "I wouldn't be surprised if was to write a reasonable let us get an audience before the ter to the Ministry of High election" the mayor comment was asking for an audience ed, wryly
