SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kelly, 504 Somerset, crossing back to Canada at the Soo.
Cpl. Ronald L. and Mrs. King and daughters Dawn and Sharon motored from Quebec City to spend Labour Day week-end with his mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brochu, R.R. 2, Cpl. King is stationed at an RCAF base near there.

Miss Ann Kearney of Barrick, a classmate at the University of Western Ontario, spent a few days recently with Miss Carolyn Dehn, 28 Queen St.

Miss Catherine Kaye, 59 Charley Street, spent the week-end at the "Haha's" Youth Camp at Lake Kashegog, near Peterborough.

Mrs. Emily Hesey, 34 Edith Street, has returned from an enjoyable two week holiday with her daughter and family home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Potts of Kitchener.

Mrs. Paul Barber, 1 William Street, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred McNally, have returned to town after spending the summer months in Ballinafad, where Mrs. Barber operates the Rosemary Gift Shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Martin, all and daughter Doris, 277 Charles Street, went on a camping trip while he was on vacation from his position as postmaster. They motored to the lakehead for their holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Harmer, Gerry and Tim, 86 Baylawn Crescent, flew to Holland this summer to visit in Holland with Mrs. Harmer's parents and other relatives. They were away for five weeks.

Ellen Behm, 26 Queen St. and Marie McNeil, R.R. 3, spent last week at Huron College, London, where they attended the Niagara Leadership Conference. Ellen was representing St. George's Anglican Church and Marie Grace Church, Milton.

Mrs. Helen Devereaux of Macdonald College, Ste. Anne, Bellevue, Quebec, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. H. Devereaux, 9 Parkview Boulevard, following her return from a four weeks holiday on Baffin Island.

M. and Mrs. Thomas Warrick, 2 Church Avenue, motored west for their holiday this year traveling some five thousand miles in three weeks. In Edmonton, Mrs. Warrick stayed with Mr. and Mrs. John Gray and an interesting part of the week there was a trip to the Alberta Game Farm. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Robin Cannon Dixon and with Mrs. Ken Henry at Transcona, Manitoba. They travelled home through Winnipeg.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pentice, 36 Princess Anne Dr. were Canon W. T. and Mrs. Dixon, rector of the Royal Chapel of St. John's, St. John's, Isle of Man. He was a delegate to the World Anglican Congress in Toronto, where he represented the diocese of Sodor and Man, which is the oldest diocese of the Anglican church in the world. Canon Dixon is also an author and his latest book "A Man of Sorrows" is shortly to be published in Canada by the Nelson publishing firm in Toronto.

The book depicts the life of the Bronte family of Jane Eyre fame. For many years Canon Dixon was rector of Haworth, Yorkshire, which was the home of the Rev. P. Bronte, father of the three famous sisters.

Miss Mabel Chave, 56 Queen Street, and a friend, Mrs. Ann Kelly, Toronto, enjoyed a late spring and early summer vacation in England and the Continent. They sailed in mid-May on the Canadian Lines newly refurbished "Carnania" which provided the ultimate in comfortable accommodation. Their first stop was in London, where they spent eleven days and were fortunate enough to see the Chelsea Flower Show. While in England Miss Chave visited her father's birthplace, Tavistock in Devon, and also visited in the village of Hylferry, Surrey. The next phase of their holiday was a twenty one day tour of France, Switzerland, and Germany, Austria and Italy. Two highlights of the continental tour were Lucerne in Switzerland and the boat trip on the Rhine. They were particularly impressed with the beauty of Switzerland. This past week Miss Chave holidayed a little closer to home when she visited with her sister, Mrs. William Richardson of Trillick for a week.

Beat Omagh, Glen Girls Meet Hornby in Finals

It will be the rivals of the King and Audrey Weir, Omagh, Halton County Rural Girls Softball League, Glen Williams and Hornby, in the league finals this season.

The Glen managed to squeeze into the showdown on Monday night when they edged a determined Omagh club 12-11 in the fifth game of their best of five semi-final series.

Omagh at one stage held a 2-1 lead in games. Hornby had disposed of Omagh in the omnium number of games.

Luis Cain scored three times. Marlene Webster, Audrey Weir, and Betty Stafford each crossed the plate twice and Marg Burlington, Kay King and Roy Williams, each scored once for the winners.

The Glen outslugged the Omagh girls, connecting for three home runs, by Lois Cain, Kay
