McCLURE'S BECOMES ROBERT GOUGEON FURNITURE

BOB GOUGEON inspects his new sign board erected in a field adjoining No. 7 Hwy. last week. Bob is using the signboard, the mails, and a new sign erected on his store this week to tell everybody that McClure Furniture on Main St. South is now Robert Gougeon Furniture. Actually Bob purchased the business from former owner Harold McClure three years ago but the store retained the McClure name in the meantime. Bob is celebrating the change of name with a special sale featuring 20% to 50% discounts.

Councillor Sees Salmon Run On Scottish Visit

Mr and Mrs Jim Emmerson and Jane Anne, 14 Margaret returned home last week after holidaying in Scotland and England where they visited with relatives. They travelled by jet both ways. When they left Malton on the 17th of August they flew first to Scotland where they visited with Mrs Emmerson's uncle and aunt. Mr and Mrs. Thomas Johnstone in Glasgow. While there, they took the opportunity to drive to Loch Lomond and the surrounding district which included the village of Luss, on down to the River Clyde. This is the town where the American nuclear submarine "Polaris" is stationed and there are quite a number of Americans stationed in Dumfries.

The Emmerson family also visited in Galashiels with Mrs. William McLaren Mr Emmerson's relation, whom he hasn't seen in 39 years, are living in England, so their holiday included a motor trip to visit them. They stayed with his uncle and aunt in East Stanley, which is near Newcastle, and his aunt Mrs. Thomas Mawson, at Serry Hill. On Friday evening, Mrs. Emmerson's family held a farewell party in their honour at the Masonic Hall in Selkirk, Scotland. They presented Mr and Mrs. Emmerson with a tape recording of the party which contains greetings from everyone there.

SUNDAY- Their Most Important School Day!

NOW IS THE TIME TO ENROLL YOUR CHILD IN

SUNDAY SCHOOL THIS SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 15th
9.45 a.m.

Your children take their first steps under your guidance and by your example. You are their first teacher of the ways of living and the Way of life — with your Church as the partner in that guidance.

Teach your children by your own life — and supplement that teaching by sending them to Sunday School every week!
