Especially those visiting our wonderful neighbours and friends, employees of Provincial Paper, Rev. McMullan, Dr. Thompson, Georgetown Volunteer Ambulance and McClure's Funeral Home. We thank you from the bottom of our hearts.
—Bruce and Linda Weston and family.

Receives 30 Calls . . . . Immediate Sale

An example of the sold feelings of The Herald's Classified Ads is Mr. C. Atkinson of 40 McGeachie Crescent.

Mr. Atkinson placed an ad in the August 22nd issue of the Herald advertising for sale a 1961 Pontiac. The ad appeared in the classified section and followed.

1961 PONTIAC for sale — Low down payment for older car and take over balance. Payments. Call 877-6457.

Mr. Atkinson said he was [illegible] at the response which totalled over 30 interested callers.

Of course he sold the car shortly after the Herald went on sale.

Attend Funeral of Nephew at Sudbury

Mr. and Mrs. James Noble and Mr. and Mrs. John Noble motored to Sudbury on Thursday to attend the funeral of a little 7 year old relative killed by a car at Naughton.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Noble, Michael and Noreen motored to Manitoulin Island for a few days late in August.

• • •

The W.A. ladies held a very successful sale of food at their booth at the steam reunion in Milton a week ago.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nunes motored to Montreal during the week end to see his mother-in-law the Rymphain for Holland after a visit here.

• • •

Miss Doris Mitchell has passed her primary supervisor's course in Toronto this summer and since had a holiday in Saskatoon.

• • •

Mr. Bill Colson has begun his third year in medicine at University of Toronto.

• • •

Officer Cadet Peter Glyfin has been in his first year at RMC after passing two years at the Royal Roads, Victoria, B.C.

• • •

Mr. Bill Sanford at Laurentian University, Sudbury for a second year.

• • •

Miss Alice Roch is continuing her course in nursing at University of Toronto.

• • •

Owing to a few lines missed in printing last week's column let me make a few corrections:
Mr. and Mrs. James Noble spent a couple of weeks with relatives on Manitoulin Island.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hube and family motored to the west coast of Canada during the summer.

Instal Jack Findlay President of Kinsmen

The first regular meeting of the New Kin Year was recently held at the Canadian Legion Hall.

This was a joint meeting with both Kinsmen and Kinettes from Georgetown and Milton Clubs. Also in attendance were the Zone Deputy Governor Marshall Mayes and his wife Vera and Kin Harry Clarke and his wife Lorraine from Burlington.

In a serious vein, the Deputy Governor installed the new executives and instructed them in the duties required of each office.

The new Georgetown Kinsmen executive consists of President Jack Findlay, 1st Vice President Ron Snow; 2nd Vice President and Bulletin Editor, Trev Moores; Secretary, Hugh Powell; Treasurer, Bob Collett; Registrar, Clare Burns; and Directors, Al Bell, Frank Bryant, Sid Alcorn, and Ray Harris; Past President, Harry Levy.

The Kinettes will be under the guidance of President Donna Moores, Vice President, Gail Collett; Secretary, Mary Cooper; Treasurer, Eva Middleton, Registrar, Lena Tufts; Directors, Marilyn Summerville, Mary Harris; Bulletin Editor Belda Alcorn and Past President, Anita Alton.

As in the past, the Georgetown Clubs will again be operating a booth at the local Fall Fair for the purpose of selling refreshments and home-made baked goods.

It is anticipated that this will be another very successful year in their service work for the Community, continuing past service projects and also embarking on several new ones as well as assisting with the plans for the celebration of the Town's centennial.
