

Hit The Big Time

SYKES BROTHERS SIGN TO DO "HOOTENANNY" TELEVISION SPECTACULAR

The big break looked for so often in vain by the entertainer, has come for Georgetown's Sykes Brothers, Bill, Ernie and Ray.

The three boys have signed a contract with J.B.S. Advertising Agency in Toronto, guaranteeing them appearances in six shows, plus one big spectacular.

The first one, 'The Hootenanny Revue of 63', will be at the Park Theatre on Yonge above Eglinton, on October 15th. The other five will be in different theatres, with the dates yet to be announced.

In June 'the really big show' will be at the exhibition grandstand, with TV coverage from coast to coast.

Starting next week their voices will be heard as background to the announcer on CHUM advertising the October 15th Hootenanny.

The Sykes Brothers live on Stevens Crescent and their mother and father operate the Scotch Bakery on Mill Street.
