Municipal Board Hearing Precedes Parking Area Plan

The final step to allow the city will administer it. town to buy land for municipal parking lots will be taken before the Ontario Municipal Board, here in town. Should downtown area will pay the cost of the proposed by-law, the pass-will be in ratio to their assessment of the third reading is almost certain. While the town must acquire the cost of the parking lots, the land, the Parking Authority will administer it. No increase in general will be allowed. According to Parking Authority member, Ed Wiener, the present plans call for lots behind Gougeon's and Barrager's, behind Crest Hardware, behind Thompson's Hardware and behind Maveal's and McKenzie's. In addition to Mr. Wiener, the Parking Authority is composed of Ed Malison and Dick Licata.

Originally installed without council's permission, Mr. Fob-council to okay them. The town last week. He did. Monday, he applied for permission to erect it. It was granted. The zoning by-law, while banning overhead signs allows council to okay them. The town planning board is discussing changing the by-law to standardize procedure in future.

Sign Came Down Goes Up Again

A sign to advertise Harold Fobert's new real estate office on the highway went in a circle last week.
