

Appreciates Publicity For Lutheran Church

11 Delrex Blvd.,
September 23, 1963.
Dear Sir:
I would like to take this opportunity to thank you and your staff for the help and encouragement given to us in establishing a Lutheran congregation in Georgetown, through your many news articles and editorial.

We are especially grateful for your excellent editorial "Welcome Lutherans," which appeared in your September 12 edition. Again thank you very kindly!
Yours very truly,
Rev. J. Kuffner.

Mayor, Young Tangle On Committee Procedure

With Mayor Hyde and Cr. Young exchanging heated words, a motion which would notify every councillor of all committee meetings and entail a report of these to council, was defeated at Monday's council meeting.

Cr. Young's motion, seconded by Reeve Elliott, never got to first base.

Along the way, the mayor challenged the two to contest the mayor's chair in December if they don't like the way he conducts municipal business. The matter arose when the mayor invited Cr. Smith to attend a meeting with a downtown merchants' group, last week Cr. Young, who is planning chairman, heard of the meeting and invited other councillors to it, but was ordered to leave when he appeared.

"I checked with the municipal affairs department today and was told the mayor was out of order, and that this municipal hospital it was announced Monday.

A member of the original staff when the hospital opened in June 1961, Mrs. Kelso has been acting director since the 3rd of May when the Director of Nurses, Miss Zena appeared in the press. But it had been called by the merchant supervisors here.

The admitting policy was altered at the last meeting of the hospital board. For the time being all admissions, except in the case of emergency, must be made between 2 and 8 in the afternoon. Pre-During the evening they were presented with a couple of blankets. High singles for the evening were won by Mrs. C. Laidlaw and Gordon Laidlaw. Hidden scores were won by Mrs. Clark Lyons, Mrs. Garnet Laidlaw, Cam Shephard and Mrs. Reg Williams.

Following the evening of bowling and the presentation of a lovely lunch was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hyde, Windy Hill, were dinner guests on Sunday at the home of their son-in-law and Mrs. Corey Freeman, the Simcoe 46 Mr. Laughlin Rd., Brampton.

Surprise Birthday Party for Former Georgetown Resident

Mrs. John Smith (Nellie Long, a sister of Mr. Jack Long, 24 Victoria Ave.) of Collingwood, a former Georgetown resident, was given a surprise birthday party last Saturday night to a chicken supper by a few of her old Georgetown friends.

The event was held at the Georgetown and remembering summer cottage of Mr. and all the old friends and acquaintances. Among those present were Mrs. A. N. Carter, After sing-along, Mrs. Earl Messey, Mrs. Smith with a cup of Creight of Essex.
